

Matthew 21:23-32

Jesus tells a story of two sons, to show the Pharisees how important it is for them to be open-minded when they see God at work through Jesus and John.

Jesus asks us questions to help us change our minds and hearts.

Help the son get to the vineyard and avoid the distractions along his way.

Jesus asks us to be open-minded. Think of five things or people that you have learnt something new about which caused you to think differently.
