

John 12.1-8

During a meal when Jesus' friend Mary poured expensive perfume over his feet to wash them, Judas is angry at the waste of money. But Jesus defends Mary, saying she has done a wonderful thing.

Mary was so thankful to Jesus she was happy to use up all her expensive perfume, washing his feet.

Draw the other people in this story sitting around the table. Show how they are feeling. Surprised? Angry? Amazed?

Fill in the blanks to help you think about what you are thankful for today.

The thing I'm thankful for today is _____ because _____.

The person that I'm thankful for today is _____ because they _____.

I'm thankful to God today because _____.

Write your name down the left-hand side of the space below and make each letter of your name the first letter of different things that you are thankful for.

My name

I am thankful for...