

Luke 4.1-13

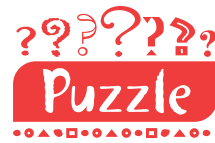

Jesus must make the right choice when tempted by the devil.

Jesus was tempted in three ways: about food, power and life itself.

We are just a small part of God's very long story. Can you draw a picture using just one very long line? Try to draw something without lifting your pen off the page.

Can you find the 10 hidden images which remind us of other parts of God's big story?

Write a diary entry for someone who was tempted to do something wrong and had to think about how to make the right decision.

Dear Diary...