Church spires to boost rural wifi access

Churches spires could play a key role in bringing wifi, broadband and mobile access to rural areas through a new agreement between the Church of England and the Government.

The Church of England has signed an accord with the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS), setting out how churches and other church properties could host new digital infrastructure.

Two thirds of Church of England parishes are located in rural areas including some of the remaining mobile and wifi 'blackspots'.

General Synod backs motion to tackle food waste

The Church of England's General Synod has called upon the Government to tackle food poverty and take steps to minimise waste throughout the supply chain.

Members backed a motion brought by the Diocese of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich outlining ways retailers and Church of England members can attempt to tackle food poverty in Britain.

The motion calls for the Government to consider steps to reduce waste in the food supply chain. It also urges parishes to help lobby retailers on food waste. The motion also stressed the need for church members to reduce waste in their own homes.

Presenting the motion, the Revd Andrew Dotchin said: "The figures on food waste in our nation are horrible and rehearsing them will not make them any more attractive."

WORKING PARTY

'In order to save on expensive cleaning and maintenance, we hold a monthly working party on a Saturday morning starting at 09.30.

Together we clean and tidy the church, do a bit of necessary DIY or gardening, have a coffee and often some home-made goodies – and finish by about 11.30.

We are enormously grateful to the few loyal helpers who turn up month after month – but we desperately need a few more.

Please consider putting the dates into your diary and coming along. All are welcome – if you can do basic DIY please let us know in advance so that the churchwardens can plan jobs in advance.

Working party is almost always on the second Saturday of each month...
NOTE the next one will be on 10 March at 9.30.

See you there, Sue

Christchurch Mother's Union met in the hall for their February meeting which was their Annual General Meeting, 24 members attended.

We started with a short Communion Service led by Rev Sue Brewer. After this Sheila opened the meeting, the minutes of the last AGM were read by Anne Thrush and one or two points were raised. Margot was not able to attend so the Treasurers Report was read on her behalf and her accounts distributed. Margot had asked for a deputy to help her with these with a view to taking over as treasurer in the future and Sue Oaten had volunteered to do this. The Committee's report on the various activities which had taken place during the year followed.

Now we meet in the hall Sheila asked for volunteers to help set up the hall, serve refreshments and say prayers, there is a rota for this purpose. Mother's Union publishes a magazine called Families First which contains lots of articles about Mother's Union. Sheila asked if we would like an old copy to read at a donation of £1, and forms are available to subscribe to this. Some copies are usually available on the MU table at the back of the church. We had a short discussion on various suggestions which were made as to future events This AGM would be the last that Rev Sue would attend so we presented her with a pen and card, (see photo opposite) The meeting closed and refreshments were served, tea and coffee and, as it was Shrove Tuesday, pancakes! Jan was kept busy in the kitchen tossing the pancakes, (see photos opposite)

The raffle tickets for the Simnel Cake (made by David) will shortly be available.

The March meeting will include a look at the Easter Experience which will be set up in the church.

FIRST STEPS
14TH FEBRUARY 2018
ST VALENTINE'S DAY AND ASH
WEDNESDAY LENT BEGINS

As usual our naughty little sheep is up bright and early. There is a little bit of early sunshine but the weather forecast isn't very good. Our naughty little sheep doesn't worry quite so much about the weather these days, he is just looking forward to seeing the Mums, Grandmas and children that come to join us for First Steps. The sunshine has gone and there is a very cold wind when our naughty little sheep, his friends and I walk up to church in the early afternoon. As usual they all make themselves comfortable, ready for our service. Our naughty little sheep has got a new friend who will be joining him and the glittery dragon on our altar. It is Audrey Hedgehog, given to us specially by Audrey Price and now appropriately named! Linda soon comes in to help get everything ready. Jan can't be with us today because she is keeping an eye on granddaughter Tilly, as it's half term.

When everything is ready we open our big church doors and first in today is Mum Rachel with baby Evelyn, just 8 weeks old, and very sweet. It is their first visit to First Steps and it is lovely to welcome them. Eventually others follow including Ralph, Isabelle and Florence who are big children who we don't often see. It is great that they are able to join us and our naughty little sheep and his friends are really pleased to see them, too. When everybody is settled with their jingle bells, we light our candles and our service begins.

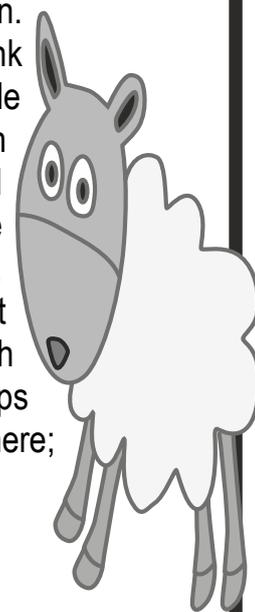

Today we're thinking about love because it's Valentine's Day. Our naughty little sheep is a bit disappointed because no one has sent him a Valentine. Better luck next year, I say! Ash Wednesday also about love, too; God's love for us. Now that we are in Lent we are preparing ourselves to journey with Jesus as he makes his way to the cross and it is through the cross that we see the extent of God's love. The thought of the cross always makes our naughty little sheep really sad. We have got forty days now to try and be nicer, kinder, more loving and more generous; a bit more like Jesus, really, as we get ready to support him. It is a very hard road for him and it should be quite a challenging time for us, too. Our naughty little sheep cheers up a bit when we sing about Jesus' love and how it surrounds us on every side. We sing about the people that we love and who love us. It helps us to remember how very lucky we are. We sing about God's love, and how He loves each one of us more than we can ever really know. Now we are in Lent it is a good time for us to be generous and share the good things that we have with those who aren't as lucky as us, isn't it?

The children have been very good and they have been playing their jingle bells beautifully. Jack has been banging a tambourine with two maracas and making a wonderful noise. But everyone is very good and quiet as we say our prayers, thanking God for all the good things that He gives to us each day and for our fun time together. Then we blow out our candles and it's time to go into the hall for refreshments, and some time to play and chat. For some reason our naughty little sheep and his friends decide to stay in church. I think it must be a bit of Lent coming on.

They want to be quiet and think about what it all means. Meanwhile the Mums, Grandmas and children are having a drink and eating all the biscuits, while they can! We have had a lovely time together, as always and we hope that everyone will join us again on 14th March for our next First Steps service. Spring will almost be here; something to look forward to.

God Bless
Rosemary Austin

Do you or a member of your family have any interesting stories from World War 1

As part of the national commemorations of WW1 we are looking to reproduce stories that congregation members might like to submit of their relatives, or local men, who engaged in the conflict!

If you have a family story, perhaps with a photograph of the person you are writing about that you would like to be considered for inclusion in an edition of Christ Church magazine over the next two years please let Sue Brewer or Mike Cubitt know.

We are hoping to get enough copy to enable a different story to be produced in the magazine during the four years anniversary period.

All photographs will be returned, but please mark on the back your name and address.

EXPERIENCE EASTER

Following the success of Experience Christmas we shall be presenting Experience Easter during March. An interactive way to explore the events of the last week of Jesus' life, the cross and resurrection. Schools, organisations and churches have already started to book visits and we have other times when individuals can make their own journeys. To make all this happen we need Volunteers who will explain the displays to the visitors, training is given and the script provided. If you would like to help or to know more speak to someone who helped at Christmas or Sue or contact Veronica 01474 534857 veronica@which.net. The children especially make this a fascinating experience for all who take part. Thank you."

PEACE CANDLE IN REMEMBRANCE OF THOSE THAT WENT BEFORE

You may well have seen the 'Peace Candle' that was used at the WW1 commemoration service on 4th August, 2014 now in the sanctuary. The candle will remain in place throughout the 4 years of commemoration and will be lit at each Sunday and Wednesday service, as a reminder to us all to pray for peace in the many areas of conflict throughout the world. When you see the candle, please remember to pray for those caught up in conflict. The sign near to the candle records the areas of conflict most in our prayers at any given time (though there are other 'hidden' conflicts that rarely appear on our televisions). If you would like an area of the world added to the list, please speak to Revs Sue or Jacqueline.

The Jealous Brothers

Joseph had a brand new coat, given to him by his father, it was a coat of many colours – red and blue and yellow. It was a very special coat, not supposed to be worn every day, but Joseph wore it all the time.

“Look at me,” Joseph said to his brothers. “Look at me in my new coat!”

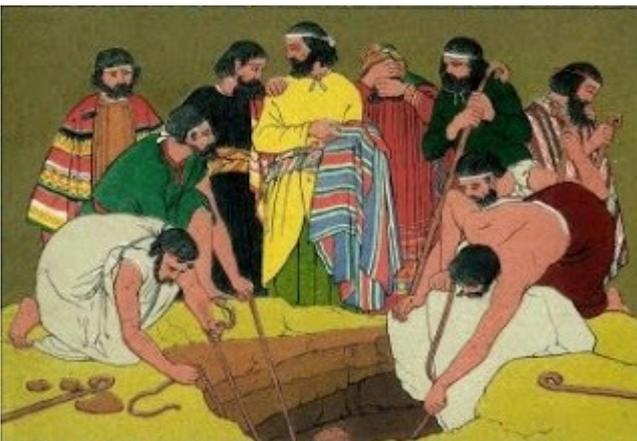

“Dad’s always giving you presents. He loves you more than us. It’s not fair!” his brothers shouted. Joseph had ten big brothers and one little brother. But none of them, not even the little brother had a new coat so special.

Their father, Jacob loved Joseph best, and it wasn’t fair. The brothers were jealous.

One day, when his brothers were minding the sheep in the hills, Jacob said to Joseph. “Go and make sure they are all right.” So Joseph set off to find them, wearing his special coat. They saw him coming from a long way away. His coat stood out with its many colours.

“Here comes Dad’s favourite,” they said. “Now’s our chance to get rid of him. We can tell Dad a fierce wild animal killed him.” They were so spiteful, they wanted to kill Joseph. But one of the brothers tried to save him. “Throw him down this well, instead. No need to hurt him,” he said. So they tore of Joseph’s coat and threw him down the well. “Let me out! Please let me out, “Joseph begged. But they pretended not to hear.

After some time a few men came riding by. Their camels were loaded with precious things to sell in far away Egypt. “Let them have Joseph,” another of the brothers said. “They can sell him, too.” So Joseph was taken far away to Egypt.

The brother made Joseph’s special coat all dirty and messy. Then they went home.

Looking at the coat, Jacob the father said. “A fierce wild animal must have killed him. He cried and cried. He thought he would never see Joseph again.

Christ Church 200 Club

The 200 Club is a means of raising money for the Christ Church General Fund, which supports the Ministry and Mission of the church and Good Causes as agreed by the PCC, whilst at the same time giving members the opportunity of a small 'flutter' and the chance to win some money.

Membership costs £30 per year. Fifty percent of all monthly donations are given over to the Christ Church General Fund with the remainder being returned to the membership in prize money. The draw is made on the fourth Sunday of every month in the hall after the morning service.

Payment can be made by an annual sum of £30, a quarterly payment of £7.50 or a monthly payment of £2.50, the latter two by bankers order. Cheques should be made payable to Christ Church PCC No 3 account.

Join by contacting John Thrush, in church, and completing an application form. If you are not sure who John is, ask one of the sides people and they will point you in the right direction.

Winning chances are only limited by the amount of numbers you purchase, the more you have the better your chance of winning.

Worthwhile it certainly is, since its inception the 200 Club has donated over £40,000 to Christ Church to support its Ministry and Good Causes.
