For Your Prayers

- Thank our Father God that we can lift our eyes to Him and find help and strength.
- Pray for Andy and the Deacons as they plan for whatever the new normal will look like for church as we begin to come out of lockdown.
- Pray for the government to make wise decisions in the management of COVID-19 and of the economy, and in their response to the calls for racial justice to be given priority.
- Continue to pray for all frontline workers in the fight against COVID-19.
- Pray for those recovering after having COVID-19 and the effects it's left them with.
- Pray for teachers and pupils who have returned to school and those parents balancing work and home schooling.
- Pray for those who are confronted by the weakness, distress and confusion of mental illness.

PSALM 121: 1-2

Black Lives Matter Statement

This week we released a statement in response to recent events entitled Black Lives Matter. Please read the statement on our website here:

Online Services

We'd love to hear from you if you think you could occasionally help with getting our services online. Leo is doing a wonderful job but would appreciate a break every now and then. You'd need to have some video editing skills and have a reasonable amount of available memory on your PC. For more details, contact Kerry. Thank you.

Small Groups

Several of our small groups are meeting regularly via Zoom; It's A Man Thing on a Wednesday and two small groups who meet on Thursday. If you would be interested in joining any of these groups, let Kerry know who can provide you with the joining instructions.

Prayer Support

The prayer ministry team (a group of about 10 people) are still very happy to pray for you. You can fill in a confidential prayer request on the Trinity website:

<https://www.trinitybexleyheath.org.uk/prayer/prayer-request.php>

Alternatively, you can ask Scilla Stirling to email the prayer chain (about 75 people from Trinity) via priscillastirling@yahoo.co.uk.
