For Your Prayers

- Give thanks for Trinity Prayer Day yesterday. Give thanks for an opportunity to intercede for our community and a chance to listen to God.
- Pray for Andy and the Deacons as they work through the questionnaire responses and work out the transition back to meeting together again - and what that might look like in the medium and longer term, as restrictions slowly ease.
- Continue to pray for all frontline workers in the fight against COVID-19.
- For our Russian friends at Holy Trinity Baptist Church, Tula.
- For all those serving the Lord in the UK and on the mission field:

Lockdown Questionnaire

Please complete the Trinity Lockdown Questionnaire if you haven't done so already. Your experiences of lockdown and thoughts of returning to an interim normal will help Andy and the Deacons decide when to resume services at Trinity. Click here: <https://forms.gle/mSUNxW6korLbkbLM9>

Church Members Meeting

A Church Members Meeting will take place at Noon next Sunday, 19th July via Zoom. Kerry emailed the agenda and joining instructions to all Members on the 2nd July.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Svetlana Andriewski on her engagement to Olan. Please pray also for Trinity Church in Tula, as they also work out a plan to begin meeting again in person. Russia has officially declared itself free of Covid-19. The reality in the hospitals is very different, but the church is hoping to begin some small group meetings in the next few weeks. Due to continuing court hearings, they are not permitted to hold Sunday services in their building, so are looking into the possibility of hiring a building
