“Putting God First” – Part 2

This is Part 2 of a 3-Part series. Ideally you should read through Part 1 first, you can find it on the church website for 18/10/20

Theme: What does it mean to put God first in your relationships

Opening prayer

“Lord we don’t know where you will take us in our bible teaching today but we trust you and love you.

We know that you are our lighthouse and will lead us through your words to new understandings and new possibilities.

Guide us Lord we pray in Jesus name. Amen.”

Now join in with the young people at Soul Survivor camp singing one of our favorite song My Lighthouse led by Beth Croft.

Questions

When it comes to relationships and choosing your friends:

- 1. Do you believe God wants the best for you or His he just mean and taking away your ‘fun’? Explain your answer giving examples.
- 2. Do you agree that:
*“If you go to messed up people you are going to get messed answers? But if you go to God you will get the truth.”

Do you remember the story of Pinocchio, the wooden boy who wanted to become a real boy?

He really did meet some messed –up people on his journey to becoming a real boy!

The decisions you make in relationship should be like the kind of choices and decisions that God would want for you to make.

He (God) wants you to be around people who brings out the best in you.

Putting God first in your relationship means that you will change

- I. How you see your relationships
- II. How you behave in them
- III. How you think about them
- IV. Who you are in a relationship (friendship) with

Now make a list of the kind of things God would want for you in any relationship.

Read

Matthew 4:1-11

“Again, the devil took Him (Jesus) to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory; ⁹ and he said to Him, “All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me.” ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to him, “Go, Satan! For it is written, ‘YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD, AND SERVE HIM ONLY.’”
