

Your Child's Baptism at Trinity Methodist Church, Chelmsford

An Important Sacrament

The Methodist Church, like most denominations of the Christian Church, administers the sacrament to both adults and young children. There is one baptism, which is recognized by all the mainstream Churches that baptise infants, including the Methodist Church and the Church of England. You don't have to be a member of our church but we hope that you will consider joining us in the future.

The ceremony will take place as part of our Sunday Service at 10.30am where you and your family will be welcomed by members of our church congregation. You may then join the congregation for coffee afterwards.

Parents wishing to have their children baptised should approach their local Methodist minister at the earliest possible moment. Our minister, Revd Mark Pengelly, will be able to explain what's involved.

This may involve, in some cases, parents being willing to undertake a number of instruction sessions. There are no set charges for the ceremony but Revd Mark Pengelly will agree a donation fee payable.

Contact the church office with your details and we will get back to you as soon as we can.

If you would like to arrange a private rooms for refreshments afterwards then please contact Janet Wintle, our Bookings Officer, to make an appointment to view our rooms.
