NOTES TO THE WEDDING APPLICATION FORM

Can you get married in the Parish of Jarrow and Simonside ?

The rules governing marriages in England and Wales are set out in The Marriage Act 1949, as amended in 2008. This states that we can conduct your wedding if one of you is either

- one of you is resident in the parish (which does not include all of Jarrow so you must check! The website www.acny.org.uk will show you which parish you are in) or
- one of you is on the Electoral Roll of the parish (a list of regular worshippers in the churches of the parish), or
- one of you has a qualifying connection with the parish – which means you can get married here if one of the following applies:
 - one of you was baptised or prepared for confirmation in the parish;
 - one of you has ever lived in the parish for six months or more;
 - one of you has at any time regularly attended public worship in the parish for six months or more;
 - one of your parents has lived in the parish for six months or more in their child's lifetime;
 - one of your parents has regularly attended public worship here for six months or more in their child's lifetime;
 - your parents or grandparents were married in the parish.

(All of these refer to Church of England services)

If none of the above apply, you could still be married in the Parish of Jarrow and Simonside if you come to worship regularly for at least six months, or obtain an Archbishop's Special Licence. (These licences are not automatically granted. Please speak to the clergy for further details.)

What if one or both of you has been married before?

If the previous marriage was ended by divorce, then there are procedures we have to follow before we can go ahead with arranging your wedding. The clergy will discuss this with you, in order to seek permission from the Bishop.

What if you haven't been baptised (Christened)?

There is no legal requirement for you to have been baptised in order to get married in church—however if you feel that baptism is something you want to explore, then we are always happy to talk to you about that.

What are the chances of getting the date you want?

There are usually few problems about getting the date you want, although the earlier you request a booking the more chance there is that the date and time you prefer will be free.

What if you have special requests?

Sometimes couples have special requests—e.g. they want a friend to sing during the service, or they would like a particular priest to take part in the wedding, etc. Please make a note of any such requests at the time of requesting your booking.

What if you have any further questions?

We are always happy to hear from you, please ring or e-mail – The Parish Office: St Peter's Church Centre, York Avenue, Jarrow NE32 5LP Telephone 0191 489 1925. Email: jarrowandsimonside@gmail.com

What will your wedding cost?

The total fees for the current year are attached. The fees increase each year on instruction from Parliament, so we are unable to say what they will be beyond that.

WEDDING FEES 2023

Statutory Fees including verger fee £545 (inc. fee for Calling of Banns)

Additional services

Organist	£ 70

GETTING MARRIED IN THE PARISH OF JARROW AND SIMONSID

The Church of England is required to comply with the Law in relation to marriage.

If either one of you is resident in the Parish of Jarrow and Simonside then you automatically have a Qualifying Connection. If not, you would need to be able to rely on at least one of the connections below.

If either of you has been married before and has a former spouse still living, then there are further procedures that we need to go through to determine whether we can conduct your wedding.

The clergy will be happy to discuss this with you.

Please answer these questions carefully; your answers will help us to determine whether or not you can legally be married at one of our churches.

You can also find out in which parish your address is, by going to www.acny.org.uk and entering the address or postcode
