Organised Quiet Days in 2024

In 2024, we continue to offer a programme of Quiet Days at Ferrar House (using St John's Church as well). These will be led by local ministers – not all ordained, and not all Anglican!

Held on the 4th Friday of the month, from February to November, they offer a chance to step out of your regular routine to be with God in a variety of ways.

Quiet Days will run from 10am – 4pm, with coffee served from 9.30am. The cost of the day is £32, which includes a simple Soup lunch and afternoon tea. Tea and coffee are available throughout the day.

And Not So Quiet Days...

These are chances for families to explore faith and life together. Please see the separate programme for more details.

‘Here I am’ Reflections of being called by God

The phrase ‘Here I am’ appears more than 10 times in the Bible as people respond to God’s call. We look at some of those moments, and the way that God calls each one of us. Led by Canon Fiona Brampton, Chaplain to Little Gidding and Priest-in-Charge, North Leightonstone Benefice.

FRIDAY 25 OCTOBER

Ref: QD241025

Title TBD

Led by Ven Alex Hughes, Archdeacon of Cambridge. Alex Hughes was ordained in 2000. He has been Archdeacon of Cambridge since 2014. Alex was born in Honiara, capital of the Solomon Islands, though he grew up on the south coast of England. He is married to Sarah, a psychotherapist, and they have two teenage sons. His hobbies include music, riding his Triumph Bonneville motorcycle and running half-marathons.

As archdeacon, Alex has responsibility for the care and support of the church communities in the south of Ely Diocese. Among various other roles, he is chair of the Diocesan Education Committee and a member of General Synod.

FRIDAY 22 NOVEMBER

Day retreats and residential retreats

All are welcome to come and spend some time at Ferrar House and in the gardens, either on your own or with a group. However, if you do would like to talk to someone, or have a guided quiet day or retreat, please do contact the Chaplain, and check availability and prices with the Hospitality Manager.

If you wish to use St John's Church for worship, please contact the Chaplain in good time, both for availability and also to complete safeguarding checks.

Fiona (Chaplain) is usually at Little Gidding on Thursdays and Fridays - other days by arrangement.
