

Meditation on the song 'The Splendour of the King'

And time is in His hands
Time to heal old wounds
Time to make amends
Time to turn enemies to friends
Time to welcome in Christ

And time is in His hands
Time to strive for my ambitions
Time to care for outsiders
Time to watch and pray
Time to grow closer to Christ

And time is in His hands
Time to cover over the faults of others
Time to gaze at the sunrise
Time to start again
Time to walk with Christ

And time is in His hands
Time to breathe out stress
Time to live in the moment
Time to finish the race
Time to stay rooted in Christ

Lion and Lamb

You stand from age to age
Outside of time, continuously creating it.
You give us time as a gift, for a while,
Until you roll up time like a garment
And welcome us into your eternity.
