NEWS AND EVENTS:

BRICKSTOCK 2018 ON SUNDAY 27th MAY:

Another successful year for Brickstock. The Family Service was held in one of the marquees before the gates opened - thank you to Andrew and Margretta for providing the music. It was very hot and humid during the afternoon and a great shame that the event came to an abrupt halt with the thunderstorm arrived in the evening. Thank you those who baked the cakes or helped with the "St Mary's Café" and the Tombola stall. We raised £220 from the teas and £303 from the Tombola.

THE WEEKLY PRAYER MEETINGS:

These have been held over recent weeks on Thursday mornings in the Lady Chapel. There will now be a break with plans to resume a regular Prayer Meeting after the summer. Mary Maley would like to hear from you as to which day of the week would suit you best.

ART EXHIBITION IN THE CHURCH, SUNDAY 17th JUNE:

There will be an Exhibition of affordable original art by Gill-y-Anne Artists on Sunday 17th June in the church – local artists Gill Wilson and Anne Marlow painting together. Tea and coffee, from 11.00am to 4.30pm. www.gill-y-anneartists.co.uk

“OUR VILLAGE” – PAST & PRESENT, 7th & 8th JULY:

There will be a photographic exhibition of Great Brickhill in the church on Sunday 7th July from 10-4pm and Sunday 8th July from 11-5pm. Refreshments available. Donations to the church.

KING JAMES – A ROYAL PROGRESS, SUNDAY 8th JULY:

Renaissance music for a summer afternoon in the church at 2.30pm – the sort of songs and music the villagers of Great Brickhill might have heard during the reign of King James 1. The Cryers, an early music group based in Woburn Sands, accompanied by local musicians will perform songs with dances of the period. Cream Teas will be available. Donations for St Mary’s Church.
