NINE LESSONS AND CAROLS AT GREAT BRICKHILL:

It will not be possible to hold our normal Nine Lessons and Carols on Christmas Eve. As anyone who has ever attended will know, the service is so popular that with the social distancing rules, which will undoubtedly still be in force, it would only be possible for less than a third of our normal congregation to attend. The church would then need to be deep cleaned for the service on Christmas morning, which is simply not practical.

We are however planning to do a virtual Nine Lessons and Carols with pre-recorded material filmed in the church. This is very much in the planning stage and details will be circulated when we are certain of what the regulations will allow us to do.
