Update 17th April 2021

On the Road to Emmaus – the theme for this Third Sunday of Easter

TOMORROW, THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER, 18th APRIL:

The service in the Benefice will be a Family Service at Little Brickhill at 10.00am

NEXT SUNDAY, APRIL 25th:

There will be a service of Holy Communion at Stoke Hammond at 10.00am. Due to social distancing requirements, anyone wanting to attend service is asked to please contact Diane Webber to reserve a place:- 01525 270409 dianejwebber@gmail.com

SERVICES IN MAY:

The recent pattern of services will continue, with one service each Sunday at one of the four churches in the Benefice. The schedule of services for May can be found at the end of this Newsletter.

We appreciate that for some it might still be too soon to return to church and there is no pressure for anyone to attend if they are not ready to, but we are pleased to welcome all those who do come to any of the services. The weekly reflections and stories will continue.

A reminder that details of the services and any changes to the schedule will be notified on the website in the normal section:-

Looking further ahead,

Due to the break in the pattern of services normally held here in the Benefice caused by the pandemic, it seems a good time to have a fresh look at what services will be held each month as things begin to get back to something like before. At their meeting on 6th May, the Wardens will be stating to looking at what changes might be made. It is unlikely that any major changes will happen until at least September. If anyone has any thoughts about future services, e.g. format, timing, frequency, which they would like considered when the review takes place, please contact Julia or Phillipa.
