Today's Readings:

Collect:

Creator God, you made the goodness of the land, the riches of the sea and the rhythm of the seasons; as we thank you for the harvest, may we cherish and respect this planet and its peoples, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Old Testament Reading Joel 2. 21 - 27

<sup>21</sup>Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things! <sup>22</sup>Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield. <sup>23</sup>O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD our God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. <sup>24</sup>The threshing-floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. <sup>25</sup>I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. <sup>26</sup>You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. <sup>27</sup>You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Gospel Reading Matthew 6. 25 - 33

Jesus said to his disciples: <sup>25</sup>Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? <sup>26</sup>Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? <sup>27</sup>And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? <sup>28</sup>And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, <sup>29</sup>yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. <sup>30</sup>But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you - you of little faith? <sup>31</sup>Therefore do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" <sup>32</sup>For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. <sup>33</sup>But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.'

Homily: Reverend Andy Jones

In recent weeks we have again seen the panic buying of the early days of the pandemic, this time it wasn't hand sanitiser, hand wash and toilet rolls it is petrol. We have seen queues just to get to the petrol pump, at one-point Sainsbury's petrol station in Westhoughton had to close. Yesterday on the news there was an item about the potential soaring price of turkeys if the supply is limited near Christmas. If anyone is interested, I have a very good nut roast recipe.

It is understandable that people are concerned about how they are going to get hold of the items that they need on a day to day basis, but a few people stockpiling goods leaves shortages for other the people who may be on lower incomes at risk of not been able to access the essentials for everyday life.

There have been further catastrophic effects of the pandemic than just people's income. Between April 2020 and March 2021, the Trussell Trust who are responsible for the running of local food banks say that 2.5 million emergency food parcels were given out. Right here in Bolton, Urban Outreach does some fantastic work across the borough supporting children, families, vulnerable adults and homeless people. During COVID their food pantries were feeding 1200 per week, to this day they continue to feed 400 Bolton families. The grub tubs outside our churches are one of the ways that we can support this wonderful organisation.

In our reading from Matthew, Jesus seems to telling us to stop being anxious about where our food and clothing comes from. When we think about this, we could say that this is all well and good but not everyone has sufficient food, clothing, shelter and sanitation. As I said in the opening of this talk, there are people in the UK who are reliant on charities to provide them with the basics.

Is the point here more that Jesus is getting us to stop and think what is important, what is it that really matters? In the time of Jesus's teachings, there were still worshipping idols, the sun, moon and rain. They would ask the elements to sustain them for example through increasing their crop yield, which would lead to material wealth, they did this while still praying to God and following Jesus.

Jesus tells us that his Father, our Lord God is the one whom controls all that we have in this wonderful line Jesus says: "Your heavenly father knows you need all these things." He is of course referring to the fact that God knows all that we need in our daily lives.

We have seen countless times were God has provided in the bible for those in need. The one that always comes to mind to me is the manna from heaven which was given to the Israelites, and still if we remember despite God providing sustaining food there were still gripes and grumbles. No matter how much God cares for us is always going to be an element of the Oliver moment "Please God, can I have some more?"

The deeper message in this is that we need to ask ourselves about what life is about. I'm not here to go into this today as this is something that has been written about by people with far more knowledge than me, but we do sometimes need to take stock of what is important in life. I always reflect at harvest time about the millions of farmers, factory workers and lorry drivers it takes to keep us clothed and fed.

It is amazing when we think about it that much of our food starts life as a seed or a bulb planted out in the natural elements to grow and multiply. Sometimes our crops yield is affected by bad weather but by some logistical miracle our food shelves are kept stocked.

Is it productive for us to spend all our lives worrying about crops growing for harvest and will there be enough food to eat? Jesus tells us not to worry as there is no point in worrying about something that we have no control over, his Father will provide. Does worrying about these concerns add anything to our lives? I would suggest not.

Taking more time to grow in relationship with Jesus will have a very different yield. The seeds that we sow in our relationship with Jesus are always going to grow. Jesus will always be there to help nurture us, but like when tending to crops we still need to take time in tending our relationship with God, through prayer we will germinate and grow.

I became quite preoccupied as to why my tomatoes did not grow well this year and Katie would come outside and point out to me standing watching them is not going to make them grow. She was correct of course and perhaps my overzealous tomato growing was a bit waste of time as it didn't affect the outcome. I could have used the time more wisely on lots of other jobs that Katie had so very kindly lined up for me.

Joking apart it is not easy for people not to worry about the future, especially if we are anxious about the economic situation we are in at this moment. However, there are charities that are here to help like the Trussell Trust and Urban outreach.

I always remember a lecture I attended by the Church Army chief exec, who said:

"I don't worry about money, the Lord has given me all the money I need, it's just in your wallets." While this made me smile a lot it was a reminder of the fact that we need to do all we can to help others.

When we give our trust to God and when we help to provide for those in need we grow as his disciples. As we celebrate harvest, we are reminded of the importance of sharing our wealth with others, whether this be through financial contributions or through our time.

Although it can be hard, endless worry about our future is fruitless. Jesus says, "So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own." We can spend so much time worrying about the future but miss the presence of here and now.

So, let us trust our Lord and rejoice in the fact that he will watch over us and provide for us.

Amen

It's almost that time of year again when we have to do our income survey. If you are 16 years old or older and attend church 12 times or more each year, you'll be given a form and just asked to tick which box best reflects your income.

Even if you have a low or no income or receive a student loan / benefits, we need you to complete a form. Once completed, place the form in the box provided.

The form is anonymous [your name will not appear on it] and no-one from our churches will ever see it.

PLEASE complete one form each [not one per family], but ONLY one even if you attend every week, and do it at the church you attend most often [if you attend different churches within the team]. Our diocese use the information to determine our annual parish share so we need the information to be complete and accurate.

Many thanks for your help with this.

Team Quiet Day

Saturday 30th October 10:00am – 3:00pm
St. John's Church, Wingates

Revd Malcolm Wearing is planning to run a quiet day in the Team, on Saturday 30th October 2021 at St John's Wingates. The theme will be "Who is God", and will reflect on our understanding of who God is through reflection on the words of five Psalms. If that sounds a bit heavy, it really isn't, each input session is only about 5-10 minutes reflection, with a piece of music at the start and end, chosen to draw out the theme. Then in between there will be space to just reflect quietly, do craft, and walk and pray a labyrinth. If you have never walked a labyrinth before it can be quite a moving thing to do. The details are still to be finalised, but it is expected to run from 10.00 AM until around 3.00 PM, there will be a light lunch of soup and a roll. Please let Malcom know if you want to attend so he can manage numbers malcolm@revmw.co.uk.
