

Christmas Day 2020

Eternal God, who made this most holy night
to shine with the brightness of your one true light:
bring us, who have known the revelation of that light on earth,
to see the radiance of your heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

10.30am Reverend Becky will preside and preach.

Ann Willis will read online and Sheila Richmond will lead our prayers in church and online

Pebbles Service in hall

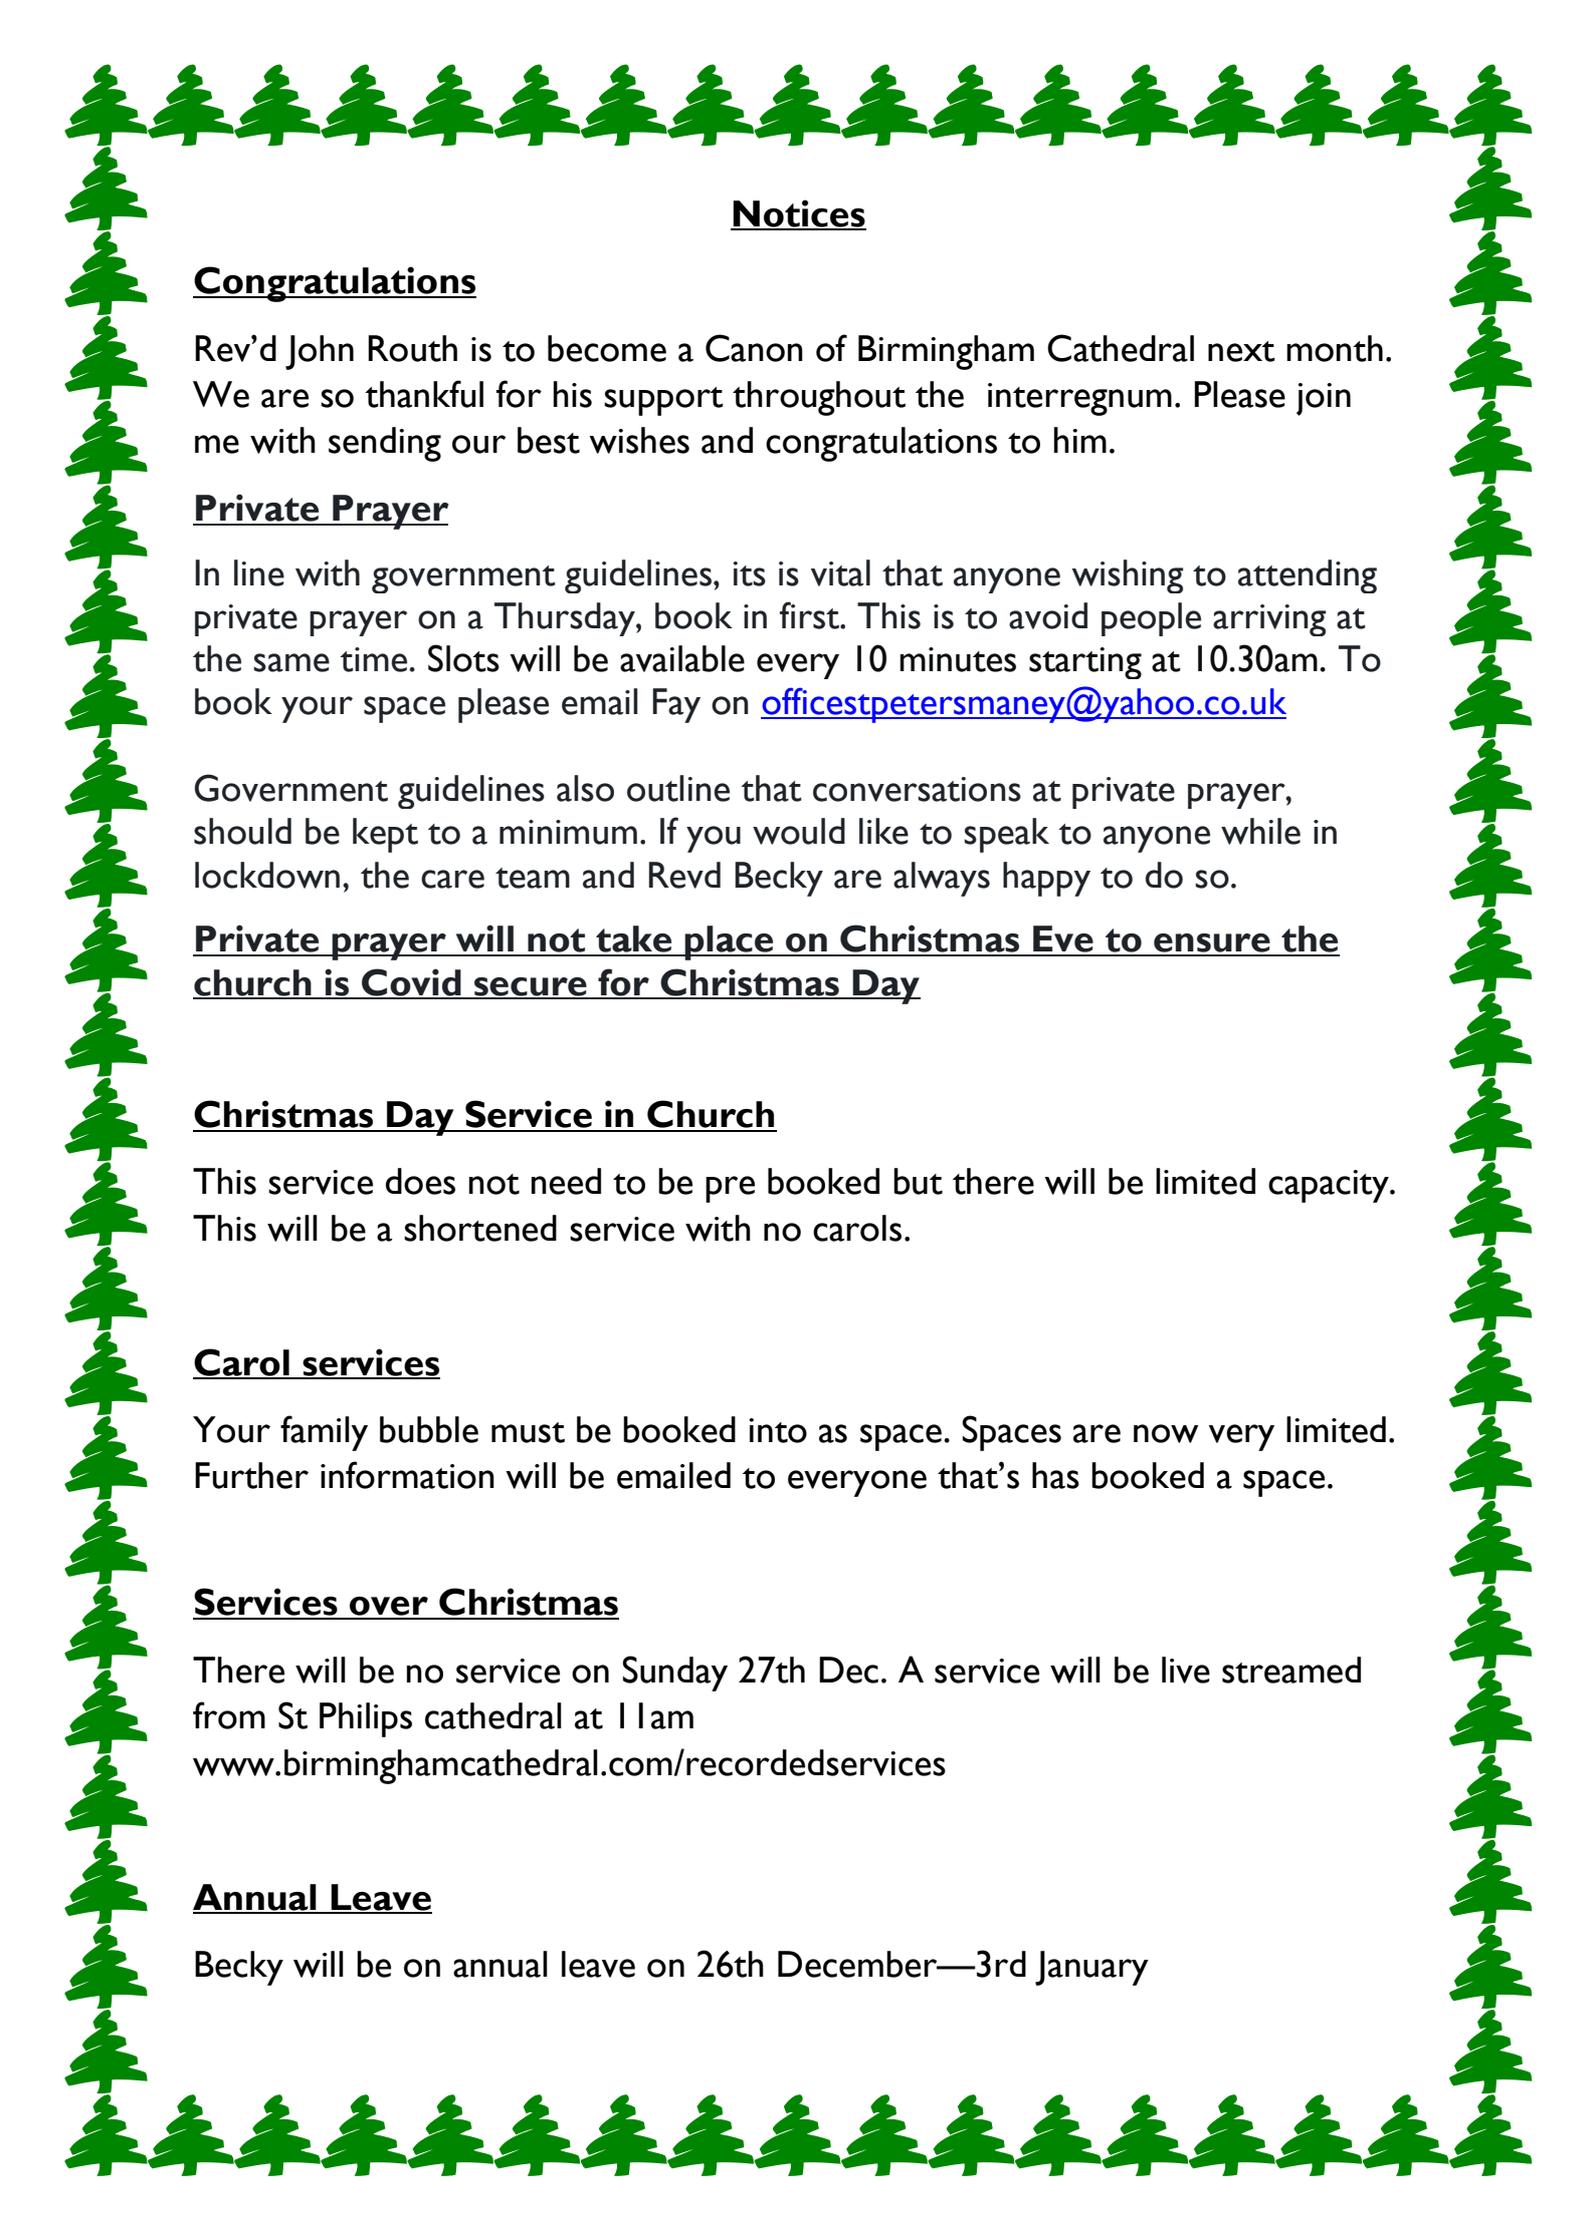

Welcome to St Peter's Church. We are delighted you have chosen to worship here today. To ensure the safety of all of us, there are some important guidelines to follow during the service. Please take note of the notices given by the minister and follow the direction of the churchwardens.

As you came in you will have been asked to take a wafer in a paper cup. This is for during communion. If you would like to receive the bread during communion and did not take a cup, please do ask a churchwarden.

The service will be shorter than usual this morning in order to ensure we are all safe under the latest government guidelines. You can be part of a longer service, with carols, readings and a longer reflection, in the online service in the safety of your homes. You will find this on Facebook or YouTube, links are on our website.

As you leave today, please take this order of service with you, as well as your cup and notice sheet. These must be disposed of in your homes. Please place your track and trace form in the box at the back of church as you leave, unless you have checked in using the NHS App.

We hope you will be blessed and know God's love for you this morning.

Notices

Congratulations

Rev'd John Routh is to become a Canon of Birmingham Cathedral next month. We are so thankful for his support throughout the interregnum. Please join me with sending our best wishes and congratulations to him.

Private Prayer

In line with government guidelines, its is vital that anyone wishing to attending private prayer on a Thursday, book in first. This is to avoid people arriving at the same time. Slots will be available every 10 minutes starting at 10.30am. To book your space please email Fay on officestpetersmaney@yahoo.co.uk Government guidelines also outline that conversations at private prayer, should be kept to a minimum. If you would like to speak to anyone while in lockdown, the care team and Revd Becky are always happy to do so.

Private prayer will not take place on Christmas Eve to ensure the church is Covid secure for Christmas Day

Christmas Day Service in Church

Psalm 96

- 1 Sing to the Lord a new song;
sing to the Lord, all the earth.
- 2 Sing to the Lord and bless his name;
tell out his salvation from day to day.
- 3 Declare his glory among the nations
and his wonders among all peoples.
- 4 For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised;
he is more to be feared than all gods.
- 5 For all the gods of the nations are but idols;
it is the Lord who made the heavens.
- 6 Honour and majesty are before him;
power and splendour are in his sanctuary.
- 7 Ascribe to the Lord, you families of the peoples;
ascribe to the Lord honour and strength.
- 8 Ascribe to the Lord the honour due to his name;
bring offerings and come into his courts.
- 9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness;
let the whole earth tremble before him.

10 Tell it out among the nations that the Lord is king.
He has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity.

11 Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it;

12 Let the fields be joyful and all that is in them;
let all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the Lord.

13 For he comes, he comes to judge the earth; •
with righteousness he will judge the world
and the peoples with his truth.
