

Chester Cursillo Weekend Application Form

A Cursillo weekend in Chester Diocese can be either two or three days long, starting on either a Friday or Thursday evening and running through to Sunday afternoon. The content is the same on either option but with the 3-day version having more personal space.

Sponsorship

All aspects of a Cursillo weekend are supported by prayer. Therefore, we ask existing members to support new members before, during and immediately after their attendance. This is known as sponsorship. A sponsor can also provide more information about the weekend, advice and practical support (not financial).

As a matter of courtesy, we also notify your parish priest that you have applied to come on a weekend.

Funding of Cursillo

Chester Cursillo Weekends are fully funded from money that is donated to us. The weekend is a gift to participants who will have the opportunity to make a donation towards the cost of future weekends for others. There will be absolutely no obligation to do so.

Although the weekend is free, we do ask for a deposit of £20. This deposit is not normally refundable if you cancel your attendance less than six weeks before the date of the Weekend. If payment of the deposit would present you with particular difficulty, please speak, in confidence, to our Weekend Co-ordinator (see below), who can make alternative arrangements with you.

The Venue

Currently Chester Cursillo Weekends are held regularly at either Wistaston Hall, Nr Crewe and Foxhill Conference Centre, near Frodsham.

After the Weekend

After the weekend we continue our Christian life together, and this is the most valuable part of Cursillo as we support and encourage one another through local groups and meetings.
