With this edition of the Highlander you'll get a programme of specifically Christmas and Advent services which is the centre fold (pages 13 to 16). Please take the opportunity to pull this out and give it to a friend or neighbour who might be interested. You yourself can easily pick up a replacement at the church

The Highlander is published by Highlands Methodist Church, Sutherland Blvd, Leigh-on-Sea, Essex, SS9 3PT. Highlands Methodist Church is a member church of the Southend and Leigh Circuit, 34/10, which is part of the Beds, Essex and Herts District.

From the Editor

Sorry but this is not terribly seasonal, but I'll try to shoehorn a festive reference in at the end.

Lesley and I take part whenever we can in the Gospel Vespers Service at the Fishermen's Chapel. Great atmosphere, great music. Great worship. The latest, in November, certainly lived up to this. It included a song made famous (though not written) by Michael Jackson – 'Man in the Middle'. The choir performed it impeccably but some thought that it was an inappropriate choice, due to the accusations against Jackson of child abuse, mostly made since he died 10 years ago.

I have every possible sympathy with victims of this and any other child abuse, but no problem with the song. The lyrics, written in 1987 by Siedah Garrett, have some strong resonances with 2019 themes. This is the chorus:

*I'm starting with the man in the mirror
I'm asking him to change his ways
And no message could have been any clearer
If you want to make the world a better place
Take a look at yourself, and then make a change*

Now, you surely know that an Election is coming this way on 12 December. Some politicians, and some commentators, would have it that B***** is by far the largest issue, or indeed the only issue that matters. I don't agree. I think that there are problems and debates that are more important. Climate change, the mess we're making of our planet, how we pay for and make use of healthcare, human migration (across the whole world), the futures of various nations and continents in crisis, poverty, conflict, injustice – I could go on...

So what can anyone do about these problems? Does anyone care? If you get the knock on the door ('May I rely on your support?') or take part in a meeting, ask about these matters. But I doubt that any of our politicians has a complete answer. Even if they do, they may be reluctant to share. Frank answers are not always comfortable answers.

The truth is that each one of us has to take ownership of (say) climate change, find out what we can do about it, and then do it. If we can just follow the advice of the song and start with 'the man [or woman] in the mirror' we might make some progress. It would be a great Christmas present for the next generation._

From your Minister

I went for a run this morning. This is a big deal since it must be back in May since I last did this form of exercise. The thing is, I can give myself lots of excuses, not least the fact that on three or four occasions whenever I ran prior to this I pulled something in my leg and was advised to 'take things easy'. Which of course I did, but the trouble is my 'easy' became a 'rut' and it ended up just too easy not to bother. Don't get me wrong, like so many things that are good for you, I love running when I get into it, but it seems to be so much of an effort to just 'do it'!

So then why did I climb out of my rut this morning? I'm not really sure. Yesterday I spent some time thinking about 'righteousness' and decided that instead of being all theological and theoretical, righteousness is quite simply choosing to do what we know to be 'RIGHT' - no excuses - just do it. So when I woke up this morning and started to think about all the things I needed to do for the weekend, that run was shouting out, 'What about me?' I did take it easy, no injuries, but now the big question becomes, 'How do I make sure this doesn't just end up as a one off?' The answer is quite simple really; running has to become part of a routine fitting comfortably into the pattern of my life.

Paul tells us that:

'Physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things.' (1Timothy 4:8)

How much more important is it therefore that we all include in our daily routine space and time for 'spiritual' exercise? Time to be still, pray, reflect on God's word and most of all listen to the inner promptings of the Holy Spirit as we seek to faithfully follow Jesus. Surely Advent is the perfect time to restore a fresh, healthy, spiritual routine into our lives. After all:

'Advent is a season of expectant waiting and preparation for both the celebration of the Nativity of Jesus and his return at the end of time.'

Now I don't know about you, but I have lots of excuses for not finding the time, space or stillness in my life for this kind of thing through the month of December, but then I ask, 'What is the RIGHT thing to do?'

By the way, did you know that excuses are like sausages? A skin of truth stuffed with a lot of lies. Let us unite in our commitment to carve out some time each day for Jesus, after all 'HE is, the reason for the season!'

God bless, Norman

We pray for our friends who are ill, housebound or bereaved and for those in residential care: Pat Gare in Admirals Court, Jean Burgess in St Martins Care Home, Doll Edwards in The Cedars and Marie Moore at Rosedale Court, Rayleigh. Marie would welcome visitors. Our thoughts and prayers are with them and their families.

Now for a Short Commercial Break

Calling anyone who would like to explore what it would mean to become a member at Highlands Methodist Church.

Norman is planning to hold a couple of sessions in January for anyone interested. No pressure, just a relaxed informative time of exploration and sharing. Questions are welcome. Do let him know if you plan to come so that he can organise a time suitable to all who are wanting to take part.

Puzzle of the Month

Do as many of these as you can without looking them up. But if you do have to look them up, take some time to read the stories. There's some gripping stuff in there!

- The name of Jacob's youngest son.
(Genesis 35:18)
- A stone that told what God had done.
(1 Samuel 7:12)
- A saint who showed great unbelief.
(John 20:24)
- One who to God poured out her grief.
(1 Samuel 1:15)
- A man to save his life who fled.
(Genesis 19:18-22)
- A queen who filled another's stead.
(Esther 2:17)
- A king who had God's witness slain.
(Matthew 14:3-11)
- And a man whose prayers stayed the rain.
(1 Kings 17:1)
- He lived the longest here below.
(Genesis 5:25)
- Initials of each answer give a place you know....

Dates to Remember

Highlights at Highlands

You may have noticed that Christmas is approaching, so there are far too many events going on for me to cover all of them. So I have picked out a few that may appeal. Full details of the Showstoppers Winter Wonderland event are on page 9, and Serving the Homeless events are on page 23.

I Can't Believe It's Another Election

Well I'm sorry but it is, on 12 December.

On Wednesday 4 December at 7:45 pm, Leigh Road Baptist Church have agreed to host a hustings, to which all are welcome. Sir David Amess (Con), Aston Line (Lab) and Nina Stimson (Lib Dem) will spend 2 hours trying to avoid your questions, which should be sent in advance to office@lrbc.org.uk by 12:00 noon on Monday 2 December.

Highlands Church itself will be the polling station as usual – from 7:00 am to 10:00 pm. Vote early and avoid the rush!

As in previous elections we'll be running a free coffee service. If you'd like to help, watch the notice board in the Jubilee Room for further information.

Lantern Making and Carols

The Fishermen's Chapel in New Road are making Lanterns which they will then take down to the open-air Carol Service on Strand Wharf. Go with all the family to the Chapel at 3:30 pm on Saturday 14 December. Hot chocolate and other refreshments will be served with a suggested donation of £1.00.

For more info go to www.fishermenschapel.org.uk

MenCap Concert

A few tickets are still available for the annual Christmas Concert on Friday 6 December at Highlands. Please talk with Jean or Frank Edmonds.

Florentines: a Very Sweet Christmas present

This recipe is a winner three ways:

- These little biscuits are utterly irresistible – don't start because you won't finish until they're gone
- They make a very special and personal gift for someone, especially if you invest in some presentation bags (in Lakeland 50 for £3.99, or elsewhere). It's the effort, not only the thought, that counts.

- They are quick, easy and almost completely idiot-proof to make at home. I know because I am that idiot.

- 50g butter
- 50g demerara sugar
- 50g golden syrup
- 50g plain flour
- 25g dried cranberries or glacé cherries
- 50g candied peel
- 25g almonds, finely chopped
- 25g walnuts, finely chopped
- 200g chocolate

1. Preheat oven to 180C, 350F, gas 4. Line 3 baking trays with parchment or silicon sheets
2. Put the butter, sugar and syrup into a small pan and gently heat until the butter is melted
3. Remove the pan from the heat and add the flour, then all the fruit and nuts. Stir well.
4. Use a teaspoon to put the mixture on the 3 trays in small amounts. You should get about 18 – 20 from the mixture. Space them well apart as they will spread out.
5. Bake for about 7-8 minutes until just golden brown – don't overcook. Cool on the tray and then place onto a rack.
6. Melt the chocolate and spread it over the flat base of each Florentine. Just before the chocolate has set, use a fork to make a zig-zag pattern.

I'm sorry to say I have no idea how long they keep for. They always disappear too quickly to find out.

If you'd like to take part in Sunday Worship on BBC Radio 4 at 08:10 am on Sunday 5 January you need to be at Rayleigh Methodist Church by 7:00 am at the latest. This is to give the sound crew the time to set up and get the levels perfect for broadcast. As you know, the Fishermen's Chapel Gospel Choir are performing but it will also be up to you to raise the roof and show the rest of the UK that Methodism is alive and kicking in SE Essex.

PinPoint

Following our successful Christmas project, we are now back to our normal routine of 2nd and 4th Wednesdays. Some of us will be finishing our table mats and stockings, whilst others start something fresh of their choice. All are welcome to join our happy band of needleworkers, whatever your talent, or maybe just to be guided or to do your mending.

We'll be meeting on Wednesday 11 December and then 8 January and 22 from 10:00 am until 12:30 pm.

Singalong Carols

Please note that all are welcome to a singalong that will take place before the Sunday 22 December Carol Service (which starts at 4:00 pm). We'll try to fit in as many favourite carols as possible.

So join us from 3:30 pm to 4:00 pm for an ideal opportunity to tune your vocal chords up for the main event. Post your favourites on the sheets up at church.

Autumn Fair feedback

This event raised £489.50, which was reasonable, bearing in mind we were up against the Rugby World Cup final – live from Japan - and a stormy weather forecast.

Four stalls pulled out. The rugby ended up being shown on the television at the fair. Least said about the rugby the better, but congratulations to the South Africa team.

There were not many people to help set up on Friday. This and other aspects of event need to be reviewed more fully.

Walkabout

A quick quiz. Is Walkabout

- a. A chain of Australian themed pubs?
- b. A controversial 1971 movie starring Jenny Agutter?
- c. An experiment in better communication and better matching of our property resources to the needs of the Church family?

The answer is 'all of the above' but it's c. that I want to tell you about - briefly. Walkabout is getting the relevant people together and walking round the building, looking at what is working well and what isn't, and agreeing what should be done. The first iteration of Walkabout did not achieve as much as hoped, but plans are afoot to repeat the exercise in January. People should be more comfortable with the idea by then, so we hope that it will work better.

If you would like to take part in this exercise (and haven't been asked) please contact Norman.

Poem for November

I chose this one as it's seasonal and a total contrast to Kipling, whose work we read last month. The writer was born (in 1958) and raised in Birmingham by West Indian parents. He left school unable to read or write and severely dyslexic. Hence, he writes in a Jamaican/Brummie patois. Don't be put off by this. Read it out loud and it will make sense. This is intended as a fun poem for children, but it has some points to make about animal cruelty, the ethics of meat-eating and the meaning of Christmas. The poet also has a lifelong devotion to promoting the acceptance of people as they are, without looking down on difference. He is a Rastafarian, an Abrahamic monotheistic faith whose beliefs rely on a specific interpretation of the Bible.

Talking Turkeys

by Benjamin Zephaniah

Be nice to yu turkeys dis christmas
Cos' turkeys just wanna hav fun
Turkeys are cool, turkeys are wicked
An every turkey has a Mum.
Be nice to yu turkeys dis christmas,
Don't eat it, keep it alive,
It could be yu mate, an not on yu plate
Say, Yo! Turkey I'm on your side.

I got lots of friends who are turkeys
An all of dem fear christmas time,
Dey wanna enjoy it, dey say humans destroyed it
An humans are out of dere mind,
Yeah, I got lots of friends who are turkeys
Dey all hav a right to a life,
Not to be caged up an genetically made up
By any farmer an his wife.

Turkeys just wanna play reggae
Turkeys just wanna hip-hop
Can yu imagine a nice young turkey saying,
'I cannot wait for de chop',
Turkeys like getting presents,
dey wanna watch christmas TV,
Turkeys hav brains an turkeys feel pain
In many ways like yu an me.

I once knew a turkey called Turkey
He said 'Benji explain to me please,
Who put de turkey in christmas
An what happens to christmas trees?',
I said 'I am not too sure turkey
But it's nothing to do wid Christ Mass.
Humans get greedy an waste more dan need be
An business men mek loadsa cash'.

Be nice to yu turkey dis christmas
Invite dem indoors fe sum greens
Let dem eat cake an let dem partake
In a plate of organic grown beans,
Be nice to yu turkey dis christmas
An spare dem de cut of de knife,
Join Turkeys United an dey'll be delighted
An yu will mek new friends 'FOR LIFE'.

Serving the Homeless

In December we celebrate Christmas with our Carols and Readings on Friday 13 December at Our Lady of Lourdes church at 7:30 pm. The church choir will sing the Coventry Carol and the YMCA will also contribute. Mince Pies and seasonal drinks will follow. A retiring collection will be taken for the work of Serving the Homeless.

We will continue to support the work of the Churches Winter Night Shelter Scheme which commences in early December. Please pray for this resource as they look for a venue for the Tuesday evening slot and a full rota of volunteers.

January will see the popular "Lunch in the Park" on Sunday 26 January at the Park View Rooms. Tickets will be available soon, so save the date!

In February will offer a concert by 'Mr Rock and Roll' at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish Centre to include an 'American Supper'. More detail ASAP.

Thank you all for your continued support by attending the functions we organise; also for your continuing contributions at the back of the church, that become even more necessary as the weather worsens; and of course your prayers that are always needed.
