

September & October 2021 Church Magazine

Dear Church Family,

I am so excited to be starting this month as your new minister. God has been blessing this church in many ways, and it's such a joy to be able to join you as partners in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. You'll be hearing more in the coming weeks about all that is in store for us. I look forward to getting to know each of you soon and being part of the community here in Aylestone.

Last July I preached a message from John 11 on Jesus' raising of His friend Lazarus from the dead. After that message, I shared some dreams I had for the future of Aylestone Baptist Church. Going through the alphabet, I thought of one area of potential growth that our church could see, based on each letter of the alphabet. Some of you have asked me to share that list, so I thought I'd share it here now. As I said when I first shared it, this is not a vision statement or a strategy – it's just some ideas I had as I've been praying for the church.

In John 11, we see that Jesus brought life to a dead man. He did a miracle that no one was expecting Him to do. He wasn't satisfied with leaving things the way they were – He wanted to bring life-giving change through His supernatural power. And, ultimately, He wanted to see His Father glorified. I'm sure we all want to see God's supernatural power growing in our church. We want to see God glorified in this community. Here's 26 ways that can happen:

Aylestone – Let's give every person and every household in Aylestone the opportunity to hear the Gospel. Let's see this community transformed because of Jesus' life-giving message!

Baptisms – We want to see people responding to God's command to be baptised – identifying with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection.

Commitment to the Bible–Dedication to reading, studying, sharing it, and living it.

Diversity – Let's celebrate and give God praise for people of all ages, skin tones, accents, nationalities, backgrounds, and social groups.

Equipping everyone for ministry – So that the body of Christ may be built up (Ephesians 4:12).

Fun – I think church should be fun, and I look forward to growing in this area.

Groups – Groups for everyone... small groups, home groups, prayer groups, youth groups, kids groups, Bible study groups, fellowship groups, men's groups, women's groups, any type of group.

Holy Spirit's Power – to be overflowing in our lives and in our church.

Intercession and passion for prayer – Lifting each other up and being fervent in our time with the Lord.

Joyful giving – This fuels our involvement in the kingdom of God in Aylestone, in Leicester, in our nation, and to the ends of the earth.

Kids ministry – Let's have a ministry for children that reflects God's amazing love for them.

Love – Love is an engine that gives power to everything we do – our love for God and for each other.

Missions – Growing in our giving to missions, supporting missionaries, serving locally in missions, and taking mission trips.

New ministries – to reach people of all ages and groups. Which new ministries would you like to see?

Openness to the Gospel in our community – Pray for our community to be open to the message of Jesus.

Parent and toddler groups – We can revive this group and see it thrive.

"Quid" – We have already seen God blessing our finances, so we pray for more as we give to the church out of all He has blessed us with.

Revival – When we pursue Jesus, revival will come. Jesus brought His friend Lazarus back from the dead and has given us new life in Him. Let's pray for revival and new life in our community and nation. Serving – So many great people serve this church. Let's see them thanked, appreciated, rewarded, and blessed for their service.

Third Age – We can see a growing fellowship and even more spiritual breakthrough among our the third age.

Using spiritual gifts – Learning about them and growing in them, in order to strengthen the church.

Vision of heaven – Like Jesus in John 11, let's not be satisfied with what we see in the world or in the current situation right now.

Worship – We have a great worship team, but worship is so much more than just music. Let's each live a lifestyle of worship that is contagious, exciting, passionate, and full of the Spirit and truth.

X – eXcitement for the Gospel and eXuberance for evangelism!

Youth – We continue to focus on our young people, praying to see them on fire for Jesus, addicted to His Word, contagious in their faith, and radical in their purity.

Zero discord – We want to see unity in Christ, in His Spirit, and in our vision and mission. Yes, we will have differences of opinion and ideas. But God has given us His Spirit to unify us as His church.

Those are some ideas – what are yours? What would be your dream for Aylestone Baptist? What visions, and areas of growth and investment do you think we could see? I'd love to hear your ideas. You can reach me on: 07878803387.

Yours in Christ,

Will Hall

Church Family News.

Congratulation to Julie and Jeff Lovatt on becoming first time Grandparents to Rupert. Our love to all the family, and we pray God's blessing on James, Emma and little Rupert as they begin this wonderful new chapter in their lives.

We ask God's blessing on Graham and Nikki Hill as Graham moves from being our Youth Minister to full time pastoral ministry at Ibstock Baptist Church. Graham will be missed by all, and especially our young people, but we know God has a wonderful plan for him and pray great blessings on his ministry. Graham's Ordination and Induction will take place in Ibstock on 9th October. If you wish to attend, please contact Jill.

Please continue to uphold Diane and Mike Bland in your prayers as Diane begins treatment for cancer.

Please pray for all our children and teachers back at school after a long break, and that they will soon settle back into routine.

We pray for those going off to University – Brent Novello starts his course in Business Studies at Nottingham University, Nicolas Kaba in Durham and Daniel Blackford in Sheffield begin their second year after a difficult Covid restricted first year. We pray God's protection over them, and that they will make new Christian friends.

Child Dedication

If you are interested in having your child dedicated to the Lord, please let Will know. We will have an upcoming Sunday service on October 10th, when parents will have the opportunity for child dedication.

Fruits of the Spirit Teaching Series

On 26 September, we will be starting a new teaching series on the Fruits of the Spirit from Galatians 5:22-23. Each week we will focus on a different fruit that the Holy Spirit grows in us. If you have any stories of how God has been developing these fruits in your life, let Will know Answered prayer.

After a difficult day down at the oncology clinic at the LRI, I was told my treatment was on hold by seven days because my white blood cells were low and that I couldn't continue with my second cycle of treatment until my white blood cells were at the correct level.

Leaving the clinic, I had to make two appointments one was for another blood test and one with my dentist to check that the treatment I'm having for secondary cancer was not affecting my teeth and gums.

Explaining my situation with my GP I wasn't happy that the only blood test appointment offered to me was on a Friday, just two days after seeing my specialist in her clinic. I knew the blood test was way too early because of how my body felt, and feeling lousy, I just knew my white blood cells wouldn't be at the correct level the oncology team wanted them to be, and I was worried and dreading making an appointment with my dentist.

Well, sitting at home feeling very low, my phone rang and it was Rachel Connor, "just calling to see how I was and how I got on at my clinic". I poured out to her my difficult day and that nothing was going right, before we ended our conversation Rachel said she was going to pray for me and hung-up.

A few minutes after Rachel had hung-up, my phone rang, it was my GP, out of the blue, to say that my blood appointment was moved back from Friday to Monday. That was amazing, where there were no appointments available for Monday, now, one had become available and it was on the day before my week was up and for my treatment to re-start again.

A few moments later my phone rang again, it was my dentist, very strange for this to be happening because our dentist never rings months in hand before any treatments. After explaining to her about my diagnoses with secondary cancer and the treatment I was on, the dentist made me an appointment on the 7/09/21 the date I'm expected to re-start my treatment. My phone rang again, It was Rachel," Has anything happened since we spoke earlier?" she asked. I went on to tell her about these two calls that came out of the blue, and how they all fitted in with my treatment plan ... and my worrying was over. Rachel said, "I'm not surprised about your calls out of the blue from the GP and dentist - everything has been arranged by the power of prayer."

Don't stop praying, and remember to praise God always,

Diane

It is with great sadness that I have to mention the loss of some local businesses:

The Scuba Diving store has gone under, the manufacturer of food blenders has gone into liquidation, the dog kennels have had to call in the retrievers, and the supplier of paper for origami enthusiasts has folded.

The Heinz factory has been canned as they couldn't ketchup with orders. The tarmac laying company has reached the end of the road, the bread company has run out of dough and the clock manufacturer had to wind down.

The pet shop has gone to the dogs, the butchers had the chop and the greengrocer is in a vegetative state. The fishmonger's been battered, the florists are now pushing up the daisies, the milkman's lost his bottle and finally, the bread man's toast!

DANIEL BACKFORD TESTIMONY - BAPTISMAL SERVICE 22nd AUGUST

I wasn't quite sure how to start this so I thought I'd start by thanking everyone in this church who has helped and watched me grow both as a person and in my faith. Many of you have known me longer than I have, so thank you all for being there and making my upbringing so enjoyable and full of love. You really have shaped me into the man I am today. I would especially like to thank my family, for always being there for me, it's kind of their job but I mean what a family to have been raised in. I thank God everyday for blessing me with such a kind and caring family. I'd also like to thank my friends for always putting a smile on my face and the questionable times and discussions we've had at our various youth groups over the years, Thursday group in particular has probably scarred Graham for life. And of course Graham, (Rev G). for being both a teacher and a friend. He has been there through some of my toughest and best times and has been instrumental in my coming to faith. And as many of you know he has helped my brother and family so much and I can't thank him enough. However he is losing at chess against Ben.

The bible says believe and be Baptised, but sometimes the believing part can be hard. We can have knowledge and understanding of something but to believe with our hearts is something different entirely. Sometimes we find our selves waiting for an event or a moment that makes us believe. I myself was guilty of this. For some people that event does happen and it changes their lives. For others it might not. Sometimes God doesn't speak to us with a voice from the heavens, or send us a pillar of fire to guide us. For some of us it's small hints that usually go unnoticed. It's only when we stop and look back that we truly understand what God has done for us.

I struggled with this for a long time, waiting for that pillar of fire or the voice, that life changing event. I had the knowledge and knew in my head that the gospel was true, but my heart hadn't quite caught up. It was only when I brought this to Graham and then to God that I came to understand that it isn't about the life changing undeniable event, for some people like me brought up in a Christian family, in a loving church with knowledge of God from the beginning. For us it's about the walk with God. It's about the every day. The dedication to living by Gods will. It's about putting our faith in God. Daniel.

Church notice bloopers:

Next Sunday Mrs. Vinsen will be the soloist for the morning service. The pastor will then speak on "It's a terrible Experience."

Twenty two members were present at the church meeting held at the home of Mrs. Martha Crutchfield last evening. Mrs. Crutchfield and Mrs. Rankin sang a duet. The Lord knows why.

Don't let worry kill you. Let the Church help.

This afternoon there will be a meeting in the south and north ends of the church. Children will be baptized at both ends.

Next Sunday, a special collection will be taken to defray the cost of the new carpet. All those wishing to do something on the new carpet will come forward and get a piece of paper.

HOLIDAY@HOME 2021

After the disappointment of cancellations last year due to COVID19, it was great to have a Holiday@Home, albeit slightly reduced to two instead of three days, with no outing and tables well spaced out in accordance with guidelines.

Wednesday 11th August saw 35 folks join together for coffee and table quizzes, followed by a meal of roast beef and vegetables, with syrup sponge and custard or fresh fruit salad for pudding. Then during the afternoon we watched a film called "This Beautiful Fantastic", a quirky story of gardening, friendship and romance. The afternoon came to a close with afternoon tea of sandwiches and cakes.

Thursday 12th August and again the day started with table quizzes and coffee, followed by lunch – roast pork and vegetables, followed by blackberry and apple pie and custard or ice cream.

The afternoon entertainment was a live show, featuring "songs from the shows" from Beth, a number of recitals (including "Albert & the Lion") from David Statham and Ann Hayto," Beatles" songs from Hazel and Rob. A great afternoon, and how blessed we are with such "home grown" talent. Thanks to all who took part.

Once again the afternoon finished off with a lovely tea and happy memories.

Thanks are due to those who moved furniture, peeled vegetables, made coffee, spread the sandwiches etc..etc.. to make it all possible. Well done the wonderful ABC volunteers.

Were we chosen?

Back in 2007 Neil and Julie Bradman gave a presentation during a Sunday morning service about the child sponsorship scheme run by Compassion. At that time, it did not seem as if we would ever have any grandchildren and we decided to become sponsors. Julie had a book of photographs of children from all over the world who needed a sponsor and we chose a little girl called Doreen in Kenya who would be supported by the Methodist Church in her area.

As for no grandchildren 18 months later our first granddaughter Isabella was born, swiftly followed by a sister and two cousins we now have 4 granddaughters.

Although I'm not the best correspondent, we kept up our regular sponsorship for Doreen through the Compassion programme and recently received the news that at the age of 21 Doreen has graduated from the programme completing her years in school and college. We probably didn't read the email thoroughly as we assumed that was the end of the sponsorship. We then received an email telling us that another child was being chosen for us. Our reaction to this was at our age do we want to start again with another child. We should have let compassion know as their system seemed to go ahead without comment from us.

A few days later a welcome pack arrived for our new child also in Kenya. Look back and check the dates above , our granddaughter Isabella will be 13 years old next birthday - Our new child also in Kenya is 13 years old and her name is Isabella. We were chosen and of course we will continue our sponsorship. I've still not read that email.

Cindy and Keith Elliott.

Sigma update

Over the dreadful months of the pandemic in India, and in spite of the untimely death of Yesupadam from Covid, our friends in Akividu have been working tirelessly to support the community, distributing vitamins, medical supplies, PPE equipment, food and water, as well as praying and caring for them.

They also now provide small 'pensions' for the poorest widows

The financial and prayer support we have been able to give them has helped to enable this.

As a result of their selfless efforts the Church has seen great growth. Two Calvary Baptist Church Plants have been opened [one in the shelter we raised money for].

I received the following email from Sukumar and Suguna in early September

Huge gathering Brother. Ten people given testimonies, Jesus done great miracles in their lives. Three Calvary Baptist Churches increasing each Sunday. All the glory to Jesus. All the widows and people sending their thanks to You Brother. We provided food and monthly pensions to widows and old people who are neglected. We all are thankful to You Brother.

We thank God that he has so blessed and honoured the work there. Services are held inside and outside at the main Church to accommodate the growing numbers.

A Thanksgiving Prayer by Walter Rauschenbusch

O God, we thank You for this earth, our home; For the wide sky and the blessed sun, For the salt sea and the running water, For the everlasting hills And the never-resting winds, For trees and the common grass underfoot. We thank you for our senses By which we hear the songs of birds, And see the splendor of the summer fields, And taste of the autumn fruits, And rejoice in the feel of the snow, And smell the breath of the spring. Grant us a heart wide open to all this beauty; And save our souls from being so blind That we pass unseeing When even the common thornbush Is aflame with Your glory, O God, our creator, Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.
