

Reverend Richard Price 1742

How can we know your pain?

A child brought into this world

Katherine, much loved,

Wanted, treasured,

Taken, only months in this world.

How can we know your pain?

How can we know your pain?

Another baby born of love

Katherine, innocent, vulnerable,

Nurtured, protected,

Taken again before she was one.

How can we know your pain?

How can we know your pain?

A son brought into this world

Benjamin, so perfect

A son

Who dies before he is one.

How can we know your pain?

How can we know your pain?

Pregnant again and Jane is born

Treasured, so special,

Cradled and precious.

Then tragedy, another death.

.... I feel your pain.
