

REVEREND SAMUEL WARD 1773

Reverend Samuel Ward was the vicar of Cotterstock for sixteen years. On the 26 August 1788 he married Charity Peach, a local girl. Reverend Sir George Booth who lived at Cotterstock Hall officiated at their wedding; Charity made a mark where a signature was required.

Sadly Reverend Samuel Ward was only married for two years, he died in 1790 and according to the burial register in St Andrew's he is buried somewhere in the churchyard.
