WHO SEES YOUR INFORMATION

The information you provide to us will be held on computers in the UK and the European Union and may be accessed by or given to our staff at Elim Hope for the purposes set out in this policy or for other purposes approved by you. The Church's staff and approved volunteers may process information, fulfil and provide support services on our behalf.

We do not sell or pass any of your personal information to any other organisations and/or individuals without your express consent.

Where such details are shared we have confidentiality agreements in place that restrict the use of your information to the purpose for which it is provided and ensure it is stored securely and kept no longer than necessary.

We do not store details online nor do we pass any information to third parties, except where we are legally required to do so, to assist fraud reduction, or to provide a service requested and minimise credit risks.

Sensitive Personal Information: The Church may collect and store sensitive personal information such as health information, religious information (church attendance) when you and/or your family attend, register for church events and conferences. Your personal information will be kept strictly confidential. It is never sold, given away, or otherwise shared with anyone, unless required, by law.

KEEPING DETAILS UP TO DATE

Please tell us as soon as any of your contact details change so that we can keep our records up to date.

You can change the way we contact you, or the kind of material we send you, by contacting us by mail, email, update forms or telephone using the contact details below.

We will seek your ‘ongoing consent’ to hold your personal information at least every three years, which will provide you with a further opportunity to update your personal and contact details, as well as make changes to your communication and privacy preferences.

ACCESS TO YOUR INFORMATION

You can request access to the personal information that the Church holds about you by contacting the Church’s Data Protection Officer (a role of the Operations Manager) as set out below. We will provide you with access to your personal information unless we are legally authorised to refuse your request.

If you wish to change personal information that is out of date or inaccurate at any time please contact us. The Church will take reasonable steps to correct any of your information which is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date. If you wish to have your personal information deleted please let us know and we will delete that information wherever practicable.

We may refuse your request to access, amend or delete your personal information in certain circumstances. If we do refuse your request, we will provide you with a reason for our decision and, in the case of amendment, we will note with your personal information that you have disputed its accuracy.

DATA SECURITY

The Church will take reasonable steps to keep secure any personal information, which we hold and to keep this information accurate and up to date. Personal information, held electronically, is stored in a secure server or secure files.
