

Wednesday 13th July 2022

“Your unfailing love is better than life itself; how I praise you! I will praise you as long as I live, lifting up my hands to you in prayer.”

Psalms 63:3-4

The author of the psalms definitely knew and understood how high, how deep and how wide the love of God is. This showed just how much the author felt the deep, deep love of his heavenly Father. Knowing this love led the author to live his life and the choices he made throughout his life, in the way that God wishes us all to live our lives. We have the same love and we have the knowledge of our heavenly Father's deep love for us, therefore we have the full forgiveness for our sins through the Love of God who gave his Son to take away the sins of the world. Then we must ensure that we live a true life of faith, and love one another as God has loved us. And doing so we give God the praise and the glory. Let us be like the author of these wonderful psalm verses and learn to praise and thank God for as long as we live. After all, God's love is better than life itself.