Jeremiah 29:12–14 ¹²Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. ¹⁴I will be found by you,” declares the Lord, “

Prayer is important in all our lives; it is as necessary to us as the oxygen we need daily to live our lives. As Christians we know the importance of praying daily helping us to be on an even keel with God, through the Holy Spirit. The very air we breathe comes from God and we give thanks for this. It is necessary to give us life. we can forget to pray quite easily, but we certainly cannot forget to breathe. Yet, why should we make a difference? In today's verses there is an open letter from God telling us that when we pray, God hears us and that if we really want to find God he will show himself to us. When we pray we are talking to God, we are in conversation with God, we just need to be open and honest, and above all trust in his word, just as we trust in the air that we breathe to keep us alive and kicking. Will we be happy and jubilant in our prayer life and show others that, yes we can be knowing we have the Lord's assurance that he is with us. Through his Holy Spirit we can share the love for one another.

Heavenly Father; It is such a privilege to pray to you and with you. Thank You that we may come at any time, to speak with you and bring our petitions before you for your will be done here on earth as it is in Heaven. Amen
