"There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus." Galatians 3:28 NIV

In this verse Paul relates the story of all being equal in God's sight. In other words, if we are true followers of Christ then there is nobody better than anyone else. We are all one in our Christian faith. Even if we come from different backgrounds it is still the same we are one showing God's light to all. Do we do this? Do we really appear to others as one unit portraying God as our loving Father. We pray that in life we do portray Christ but the other side that we might let slip, is the side of the world of trying to be better than our competitors, or coveting what someone has, or just by sniping behind someone's back.

There are so many differing factions in our world today, and it can be quite divisive. Even two thousand years ago people fought and rules then were uppermost in their minds instead of having Jesus at the forefront of their hearts. They put the Love of God on the backburner trying to be better than the others. They actually forgot the most important rule they had been taught in other words to love one another as God had loved them.

Let's pray we are not going down that same path; let us focus on living and loving the life that Christ died for us and forgave us all the sin and jealousies so that we would have eternal life with him. Please let the Holy Spirit come into your heart and live in harmony, peace and love with each other. Help us Heavenly Father to accept the Holy Spirit into our hearts and to love one another as you love us. Amen
