Today's Bible Reading

Gospel Reading : Matthew 5:5-9

In these strange paradoxes that we call the 'beatitudes' Jesus teaches the crowd about who are the holy people in God's sight, the ones who will find blessing in his coming kingdom.

In case you missed this last week:

we shall give you details of Mary's funeral as soon as it is arranged.

We are very saddened to say that Rev'd Mary Morris died on Friday 20th at the age of 97. Thank you, Mary, for your devotion and commitment to St Peter's over many, many years. A legend, she was one of the first group of women to be ordained as priests 30+ years ago, and very much encouraged Rose Lawley (see below) in her journey to ordination. A wonderful example and friend to us all who will be much missed.

Thank you to everyone who helped make our St Peter's Heritage Day so interesting and welcoming yesterday, from the Holy Dusters, gardeners, activities and cake providers, bell ringers, sorters of artefacts etc., to all the meeters & greeters who have given their time over the years to enhance St Peter's beauty. It's great to remember what a treasure we have here, and even better to share it with others over a cuppa and cake !!

*Two images from 2013 and one taken 12 years later:- a vast improvement!
