

22. SOUTH-EAST WINDOW

In October 1901 the offer of retired Rear-Admiral Hugo Pearson, of Rocklands in Goodrich, to erect a window in honour of his elder son was accepted. He was Lieutenant Reginald Pearson of the Rifle Brigade, who was killed at the siege of Ladysmith, South Africa, in 1900 aged 23. The window shows St Michael the Archangel, with a dragon-like devil at his feet, and St Gabriel. The window is by Powell & Sons.

