Dear Friends,

In the coming weeks we will have the joy of our Christmas celebrations. As we proclaim the good news of the Saviour coming to us, I'm sure most of us are mindful that Christmas is not universally a happy time, and so for those who can celebrate, I encourage sensitivity towards those who will find that very difficult. I'm thinking especially of all those connected to what we call the Holy Land in particular at this moment of writing. Many things are so uncertain, except the fact that there is enormous suffering and violence being known by countless people. Christmas proclaims peace. How do we deliver it though? As I consider that question, I'm reminded of the fact that this year, as last, the Methodist Church is offering us resources and material for a Christmas focus - campaign materials. This year the idea revolves around the phrase 'Out of the ordinary'. Out of our ordinary acts, in our ordinary lives, the world-transforming, extraordinary love of God can shine through. I'd encourage all of our churches to use the resources for 'Out of the Ordinary', they can help us come together in our witness and proclamation. And speaking of coming together, can I warmly encourage all of the Circuit to support and pray for our friends at Hall Street Methodist, who are holding their final service at the end of this year.

On 10th Dec at 2pm we will hold a Circuit Carol Service at Hall Street as an act of thanksgiving to God for the work and witness there since 1863. Please support that if you can. With blessings and hopes for peace.
