Ash Wednesday this year will fall on the 14th February which of course is also St Valentine's day! Ash Wednesday is traditionally the beginning of Lent and this has been marked over the years as a period of self-discipline, fasting and spiritual journeying. It is a period of penitence and self-examination and seeing ourselves from God's perspective. Even if we don't have a strong faith we have learnt through the work of Educational Neuroscientists that intentional self-reflection helps us to learn and enhances how we apply, transfer, retain and recall new ideas and information.

The bible recognises that as we go through life we will be tempted and tested and that our response to those times will help to shape the depth of our spiritual lives. I am often astounded by the way many Christians have been shaped by sermons and theology that promise good things but never talk about the cost of following Jesus. The writer and theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer called this a theology of cheap grace.

“Cheap grace is the grace we bestow on ourselves. Cheap grace is the preaching of forgiveness without requiring repentance, baptism without church discipline, Communion without confession, absolution without personal confession. Cheap grace is grace without discipleship, grace without the cross, grace without Jesus Christ, living and incarnate.”

Lent gives us an opportunity to realign our lives with God's values, it gives us a prolonged and focussed time to reflect and pray and to read the bible and deepen our faith. The 40-day period is time enough to build in new habits and actions into our lives, which will have a lasting effect.

With ongoing war in Ukraine, the conflict between Israel & Hamas and so much uncertainty in our world I am finding that there is a great deal of anxiety in society about the future and a sense of aimlessness and general anger and tiredness. Lent gives us as Christians an opportunity to give these feelings back to God and to ask him to heal and restore us. It is also, as Paul reminds us, a time to recognise that our human experiences are common and that whilst heightened by the personal challenges or world events, are not unique to us but the difference is that our faith will endure.

“No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to all. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.”

1 Corinthians 10:13

As Christians, whilst we can use this time for reflection, we also know how the story ends and we have an enduring hope within us because Jesus has conquered death and brought forgiveness to us. We are forever Easter people who live in the light of the resurrection and we can mark Lent because of his sacrifice for us. The rhythm of the spiritual and liturgical year is a helpful tool to remind us that there is a cost and a purpose to our faith, which is not about self-benefit and self-fulfilment but about generosity, servant heartedness and a simple humbler faith. As Christians, we have a message of hope for a better future and Lent gives us the perfect opportunity to prepare our hearts and minds to share the good news.

The Toy Lion

And so we banish him to bed,
(Refusing our goodnight embrace)
Into the darkness, where instead
Of prayers, he goes (to our disgrace)
Clutching his rag-page story book
And toy lion with bland, vacant face.

With sounds of his subsiding grief
And mutterings behind his door,
He talks to things of child-belief,
Re-ordering his world once more.
And in the silence, I can sense,
He chides "Where were you padded puss
With teeth and claws in my defence –
Like when we dream, the two of us"?

Roger Taylor

Bedtime Gods

Do children need to be taught to say their prayers, let alone instructed to do so?

At the time of laying down to sleep, it is natural to somehow replay and review the events of the day, often confirming or revising within our consciences our decisions, words or actions so that we take some sense of reconciliation into our sleep.

For the Believer, certainly the adults among us, it is a small step away from prayer; but it starts much earlier in life than that.

Often for a child the bedtime toys become almost 'household gods', and by the time a doll or teddy bear is smooth with use by the child, it will have shared more pre-sleep confidences than the parents ever will.

The experience recalled in the accompanying poem 'The Toy Lion' may resonate with many who have had the care of children.

Roger Taylor

Thank you

Nick, Joy & James would like to thank all those who sent cards & messages of condolences after our beloved Rachel passed away. Also thank you to everyone who attended the service of thanksgiving for her life at the end of November. The 230 plus congregation helped us in ensuring the service was truly uplifting, just as Rachel had wanted & indeed had planned it.

A heartfelt thank you to Jane Peeler for leading us in such a beautiful service & John Turnock for providing the musical accompaniment for the hymns, all of which Rachel had chosen. If anyone would like an order of service who wasn't able to get one we do have some spare copies so please feel free to get in touch.

To date £5250 has been donated to the A -T Society & Cancer Research UK but still awaiting final confirmation from the charities involved as some donations were sent directly to them. This is a marvellous testament to how highly thought of Rachel was within the Church & the wider community.

Thank you & may God bless us all!

Joy xx

Rev. Preb Andrew Alexander Roberts R.I.P.

It was with sadness that we heard the news that Rev. Preb Andy Roberts passed away peacefully on 31st December.

Andy was Rector for the Bridgnorth Team Ministry from 1994—2009. We send our love and prayers to Liz and the family at this sad time.

It is the family's wish that there will be a memorial service in Bridgnorth at a later date to be arranged.

St. Nicholas, Oldbury & Eardington

By the time you read this, 2024 will already be a month old, so it seems wrong to be wishing everyone a happy and peaceful New Year, but as this is the first Cross+Link of the new year, perhaps it can be allowed.

All the festivities of Advent, Christmas and Epiphany, not to mention St. Nicholas' Patronal, all went well this year, and were well attended and enjoyed by everyone who came to join us. We said farewell to Ken Biggs, who, after so many years' being part of St. Nicholas, moved to Weston-super-Mare to be nearer to his family. If you have to leave Bridgnorth, Weston has to be a good substitute, and we send him all our good wishes for this new part of his life. After all that, however, everything can seem to go quiet again, before the next barrage of commemoration and celebration that leads us into Easter. Life at St. Nicholas, as in all our churches, resumes its ordinary routines for a breathing space.

Our services continue on the first and third Sundays at 10:30, and it delights us to see people from our other team churches joining us when there is perhaps no service temporarily at their own church, due to the interregnum. We at Oldbury & Quatford feel especially privileged to have the dedicated ministry of Rev. Marjorie Brooks throughout this time, and our doors are always open to everyone to share in this blessing.

We also continue to support life in the village, especially since the re-opening of the Village Hall, where we are always made welcome at the various social events held there. Our Coffee & Cake sessions on 5th Sundays have proved popular with many local people out for a walk. (But please note this advance warning – the next 5th Sunday will in fact be Easter Day, so will be full Easter Communion service, with the Coffee & Cake session moved to the following Sunday – details in next month's issue!)

Apart from that, February will be mostly occupied with contributing to the next stages in the process of appointing a Priest-in-Charge for the Benefice. It can seem that things move at a glacial pace, but having reached the point where the sale of the Rectory has been accepted, and a property on Ludlow Road identified as more suitable accommodation, we can now see forward to the process of advertising the post, short-listing and even interviewing potential candidates. The first stage in this is the completion of the Benefice Profile; there will be a Joint Council meeting on 6th February to agree the final version, and then a further meeting on 20th to adopt it and to determine the next parts of the process – advertising, short-listing and interviewing etc. Elaine & I as your representatives on the Joint Council will keep everyone informed, and will take all views and comments forward to the Council on your behalf. Prayers for patience and understanding are always appreciated through this!

In the meantime, let's look forward to Spring again!

Liz Fisher

QUATFORD NEWS

I start by wishing you all a very happy new year. The news from the Diocese that a property has been purchased for a new rectory is a step forward, which means the next stage of the process can now begin with view to the Benefice Appointing a much needed Rector/ Priest in Charge. With much hard work from David and Graham the profile has reached the final stages and is all but ready to be approved by the PCC's, Our thanks must go to Graham and David for their unstinting work in leading us through the whole process, they both deserve medals!!

A very pleasing attendance for both our Christmas services was encouraging, with numbers up slightly. At our Carol service, we welcomed new chorister William who began our service by singing the first verse of Once in Royal David's city, then joined with a few other children sang away in a manger, he then did a repeat performance for the service at Oldbury, we hope this will be the first of many visits from William, we look forward to the next occasion. Special thanks to Marjorie for leading us in two lovely services, to all who brought mince pies etc for the gathering after the Carol service.

As Easter Day falls on a 5th Sunday this year, Oldbury will be hosting the service , so we look forward to joining with Oldbury for this special service.

The provisional date of Sunday 14th April has been made for our APC meeting to be held in Church at 11.30.

Our first project in the new year is to create 2 small areas in the churchyard as memorial gardens for the burial of cremains. Both proposed areas are close to where we planted trees in 2022, so they will be the defining feature in each area. This will of course require a faculty!. Rachel Edwards

ASTLEY ABBOTTS NEWS

A very happy New Year to everyone, it is getting lighter slowly and the bulbs are coming up, it will be Easter before we know it!

I would like to say a very big thankyou to all of you that have supported our church in 2023,ministers,organists, congregations,and people doing flowers, cleaning, churchyard tidiers,coffee makers, meeters and greeters! Without you all the church would be a sad and lonely place.

Our Christmas services were very successful, our thanks to Simon Boxall for engaging the children so beautifully during a rather damp crib service, to Judy and Rosemary for a lovely carol service and Stephen for taking Communion AND playing the organ on Christmas morning . We raised £80 for cancer research at my "Carols and mince pies"

Looking forward please join us for our first Cafe Church of 2024 on February 18th 10am in the village hall.
