Prayers for This Week

In our prayers this week please remember the following:

- our ministry teams, ordained and lay, particularly Revds Richard, Liz and Suzy;
- each other as we continue to worship at home or at church;
- staff and volunteers at Manorlands Hospice;
- all those who are facing redundancy;
- local restaurants and eateries as "eat out to help out" runs through the month of August;
- those who have been bereaved or facing painful anniversaries, especially the family of Barbara Sharp;
- the staff at Cornerstone Bookshop in Skipton which will be closing at the end of September;
- young people who will have either received or be expecting their exam results this week, as they make plans for the future;

Prayer Requests - we have set up an email address to which anyone can send prayer requests. Do let people know that they can send any requests to us and we will respond and pray for everyone. The email address is:

say14me@hotmail.com

Quiz Night Wednesday 19th August 7.00pm

Zoom Benefice Prayers - Thursday prayers on Zoom, please join in as we pray for ourselves and the world about us

Private Prayer - the church will be open on Wednesday afternoon 2.00-3.00pm

Funeral Barbara Sharp - the funeral service will take place on Monday 17th August at 12.00noon family members only.

Cornerstones Bookshop, Skipton - sadly it will be closing at the end of September. It will remain open until then to sell all remaining stock, so please pay them a visit if you are in the area and give them your support.

Opening for Worship - thank you to everyone last week for following the guidance. I am sure for many of you who attended, the service was a very different experience, but nether the less a very emotive one as we celebrated our first service in the church building. There is still room for additional people this week but please let Judith know if you would like to take up a place. Entry will be by the side door only, and it has now become mandatory for people to wear masks in church. It may not be the right time for everybody to return, and indeed the restrictions in place may mean that not everybody can gather at the same time. We will be continuing our online provision and the written service sheets for a good while to come, so that everyone is still able to join together in worship whether they are at home or in church.

Next week there will be no services in any of the churches on Sunday morning, but an opportunity to worship together with others in the Benefice on Zoom, as well as the option to follow the service sheet at home. This is going to be the pattern for the next month too, three services in the local churches and on the fourth Sunday a get together with friends in the Benefice.

More opportunities to view streamed services - look for details on the Benefice or Church Facebook page, if you don't have Facebook you can still see posts on the Denholme Shared Church website.

Poppies - we still need more so please continue with the knitting and contact Janice if you need wool.

VJ Day - the 75th anniversary of VJ Day will be celebrated in various ways on Saturday 15th August. At Bradford Cathedral there will be a special online VJ Day and Burma Star Memorial Service at 12.00pm. You can watch the service on their Facebook page or catch up later on their YouTube site. Anne Jay has been asked to take part in her role as Burma Star representative.

Next Sunday - the service at 10.30 will be our Benefice Zoom service. On the following Sunday, the 30th August, there will be a special Zoom United Benefice Service with a focus on Inn Churches. Juli Thompson, the CEO of the charity, will be our guest speaker.
