All Souls'-Tide
This year there will be two services to Commemorate the Departed. The Annual Memorial Service will be at 4.00pm on Sunday 31st October.

A Requiem Mass for All-Souls'-tide will be on Tuesday 2nd November at 8.00pm.

The Memorial Service on October 31st is for all our funeral families over the past two and a half years. (We are capped at 60 people due to social distancing.) The All Soul's Requiem Mass on the 2nd November is to remember all the departed from St. John's over a thousand years.

You are invited to send the names of those you wish to be remembered. Please sign the list in the porch or email the Parish Administrator. Please indicate at which service you wish the names to be read.

FIRST HYMN

I am the Light whose brightness shines
on every pilgrim's way, and brings to evil's darkest place
the glorious light of day.

I am the Gate that leads to life
along the narrow way,
the Shepherd who will tend my sheep than none are lost or stray.

I am the Well from whose fresh springs life-giving water flows and on each side the tree of life with leaves for healing grows.

I am the Bread, God's gift from heaven, sent down to satisfy
that hunger which cries out for food;
who eats shall never die.

I am the Vine whose branches grow
united in one root;
who dwell in me, and I in them,
shall live and bear much fruit.

I am the Resurrection life,
the power of God whereby whoever truly trusts in me shall live and never die.

I am the Way, the Truth, the Life, and truth shall set you free to seek and find the way to life and live that life in me.

FIRST READING ISAIAH 53:4-end

Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

GRADUAL HYMN

Brother, Sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey,
fellow travellers on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christlight for you in the night time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh, I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven,
we shall find such harmony,
born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.

Brother, Sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.
