

Role description for an Ordinand in Training at All Saints

Role: To inspire, encourage, teach and disciple the people of All Saints through the ministry of preaching.

Role Requirements:

To be:

To be called by God and approved by the Church of England, to be an Ordinand in Training in God's church. To be a person who leads in a gracious, Christ-like manner; and who treats each member of the congregation with respect and dignity, as a unique individual created in the image of God. To be a person whose own life of prayer and worship sets an example for others to follow. To be a person whose speech is honest, truthful and respectful at all times.

To do:

- To attend services at All Saints regularly (at least twice a month), and have a good understanding of the worshipping life of the church
- To preach, by invitation of the Incumbent, at services which have been authorised by the Incumbent and the PCC
- To lead Services of the Word, by invitation of the Incumbent
- To serve at Communion Services, as a chalice assistant and server
- To attend regular meetings of the All Saints Preaching Group (usually 5/6 times per year)
- To be an ex-officio member of the Worship Vision Group
- To engage in appropriate study and training, as directed by the Church of England training institute of which the Ordinand is a student
- To demonstrate a high level of respect for and loyalty to the Incumbent, in their role as the spiritual leader of All Saints; and to the PCC, as the appointed governing body at All Saints
- To receive appropriate support and supervision by the Incumbent on a monthly basis
- To be aware that when there is a vacancy in the parish, the Rural Dean is responsible - in consultation with the Church Wardens - for the supervision of those who preach.

I agree to read and adhere to all aspects of the All Saints Safeguarding Policy, including recruitment and training requirements:
