By using the church website you agree to the following conditions of use. The site is managed by All Saints Church Silkstone.

Disclaimer

All Saints Church Silkstone every effort to ensure that information on the website is accurate and up-to-date. However, we cannot accept responsibility for any loss or inconvenience caused by reliance on information on the site.

Links to Third-party websites

All Saints Church Silkstone is not responsible for any third-party websites that may be accessed through this website. We do not endorse the content contained in these sites, nor the organisations publishing those sites, and hereby disclaims any responsibility for such content.

Copyright

All rights in the design, text, graphics and other material on the website is copyright of All Saints Church Silkstone or other third parties. Should you wish to reproduce any of the information or alter, modify or distribute it, please contact us. We will only use information about you if you give consent. We may use information about you for the purposes of analysing how our services are used and how we may improve our services in future. Any information we use will be converted into a form in which we cannot identify you, and will be kept strictly confidential.

Cookies

Cookies are small pieces of information that are stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually change your browser to prevent that. However, this may reduce the site's functionality. Mostly we use "session cookies", which are deleted when you close your browser window following your use of our site records.

Accessing Your Records

If at any stage you would like to check information we hold about you, please contact us in writing. We will take the necessary action within a reasonable time. We reserve the right to take reasonable steps to confirm your identity before making any disclosure of information held by us.

Security

We use a number of technologies and operational procedures to protect data submitted to us by our users. Physical security of data on our equipment is provided by a combination of firewalls, website authentication services and data encryption.

Transmission of Data

Whilst we have taken all reasonable steps to ensure that information about you will be kept secure from unauthorised access we cannot guarantee that the information will be secure during transmission by you to our website. If you access this website from a country outside the European Economic Area (EEA) and view information about you or your business/organisation held by us, this will involve transferring that data to the computer you are using to access the website. You should be aware that the country in which you are viewing the information may have less stringent data protection laws than countries within the EEA.

Data Controller

The data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998 is The Vicar of All Saints Church Silkstone. We will at all times comply with the Data Protection Act. Please refer to our Contact Page for details.
