

Acceptable Use Agreement

This agreement aims to keep children and young people safe online when participating in online sessions with St John's Welling. Both under 18s and adults need to be responsible online, use the internet safely and follow these rules.

I will be responsible in my online behaviour whilst participating in sessions with St John's Welling. I will not do anything that might risk my own safety, the safety of other users and the safety and security of other users' systems.

My Safety

I understand St John's Welling will monitor my online behaviour during the Zoom Light Party. I will not share my user name or password, or use another person's username or password. I will be aware of stranger danger online and not share personal details (e.g. contact details) about myself or others online. I will immediately report to Mediator/Safeguarding Lead any unpleasant or inappropriate material or messages that make me feel upset or unhappy.

Proper online activity and rules

I will not create, access (download or upload), share or store any illegal or inappropriate material*, while participating in St John's Welling Zoom Light Party. I will not install or store programmes on other users' equipment that will alter or affect that equipment.

 Illegal and inappropriate online materials including:- gambling, pornography, age-rated games/films, websites or games showing violence, any sort of extremism or being unkind to others (intolerance) based on race, religion, disability etc., sending or receiving words or pictures about sex.*

My Behaviour

I will act as I want others to act towards me. I will be polite when I communicate with others online. I will not use unkind, angry or bad language in texts, emails or any other online messages. I will not take, send or share on social media, screenshots/pictures of anyone without their permission.

I am Responsible

I understand that if I have broken the rules of the Zoom Light Party (if my online behaviour does not follow this Agreement) I will be removed from the Zoom Light Party. I understand that if any of my actions/behaviours are contrary to the law, St John's Welling has a statutory responsibility to inform the police or other relevant agencies and will report accordingly.
