

Communion

Communion will be offered in both kinds but by intinction. The president will dip the bread into the chalice and offer it to you in the way that bread alone is offered. If you prefer to receive the bread only please hold your hands out clasped together until the president offers you the bread without intinction.

Collections

As always, we are very grateful for the offerings that you make to support the work of the church. We now have a collection 'box' that will receive your gifts by tapping a credit or debit card. Please use it before or after the service if this is a good way for you to make your contribution. Please be patient as it takes a little while for your payment to register. Please also consider making a regular direct transfer into our bank account or taking a pack of envelopes to support your weekly giving.
