

ARCH Group's aim: "To show our love for God and You"

Weekly Notices
14th March 2021
Mothering Sunday

Today's Collect

God of love, passionate and strong, tender and careful: watch over us and hold us all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For Prayer

On the leaders of the nations as they make decisions about international relationships, especially on the leaders of China, Iran, Yemen and Myanmar:

Let your light shine,
and bring hope to your children.

On the leaders of the Church as they make decisions about church opening and mission activities for Passiontide and Easter:

Let your light shine,
and bring hope to your children.

On teachers, teaching assistants, administrative staff and students as they settle back into schools:

Let your light shine,
and bring hope to your children.

On those making decisions concerning the vaccination programme and the implementation of the roadmap to recovery:

Let your light shine,
and bring hope to your children.

On those who feel isolated, those who mourn loved ones, and those who are ill...

Let your light shine,
and bring hope to your children.

Loving Lord, we look up to you and trust that your light will guide us in the path of peace, justice and love.

In the name of Jesus.

Amen.

This Week's First Reading: Exodus 2:1-10

<sup>1</sup>A man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. <sup>2</sup>The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him for three months. <sup>3</sup>When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. <sup>4</sup>His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him. <sup>5</sup>The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. <sup>6</sup>When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him, 'This must be one of the Hebrews' children,' she said. <sup>7</sup>Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?'

<sup>8</sup>Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Yes.' So the girl went and called the child's mother. <sup>9</sup>Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.' So the woman took the child and nursed it. <sup>10</sup>When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, 'because,' she said, 'I drew him out of the water.'

This Week's Psalm: Psalm 34:11-20

- 11 Come, my children, and listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.
- 12 Who is there who delights in life and longs for days to enjoy good things?
- 13 Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from lying words.
- 14 Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.
- 15 The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous and his ears are open to their cry.
- 16 The face of the Lord is against those who do evil, to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

- 17 The righteous cry and the Lord hears them and delivers them out of all their troubles.
- 18 The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and will save those who are crushed in spirit.
- 19 Many are the troubles of the righteous; from them all will the Lord deliver them.
- 20 He keeps all their bones, so that not one of them is broken.

This Week's Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 1:3-7

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation, <sup>4</sup>who consoles us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to console those who are in any affliction with the consolation with which we ourselves are consoled by God. <sup>5</sup>For just as the sufferings of Christ are abundant for us, so also our consolation is abundant through Christ. <sup>6</sup>If we are being afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation; if we are being consoled, it is for your consolation, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we are also suffering. <sup>7</sup>Our hope for you is unshaken; for we know that as you share in our sufferings, so also you share in our consolation.

This Week's Gospel Reading: Luke 2:33-35

<sup>33</sup>The child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about Jesus. <sup>34</sup>Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, 'This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed <sup>35</sup>so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed - and a sword will pierce your own soul too.'
