DONATION FORM

Dating back to the 13th Century and restored by Woodyer in 1869, St Mary's Church is the only Grade 1 listed building in Chiddingfold.

The Friends of St Mary's Church was established in 1979 as a registered charity with the sole purpose of raising funds for the repair, maintenance and conservation of the church and its churchyard.

This ancient and beautiful church stands open every day at the heart of our village community as it has for many centuries. It is a constant in village life and warmly welcomes anyone and everyone in times of need or celebration. This may be for a special occasion, quiet prayer and reflection or just to enjoy the beauty and serenity of the building and its surroundings.

The church building has been maintained for our use today thanks to the generosity of people past and present.

The Friends of St Mary's Church have recently contributed to:

- Church Roof Appeal – first full re-roofing since 1879. (2015-2017)
- A new sound system (2015)
- Restoration of the organ (2014)

Projects for 2017/2018 include:-

- A new lighting system (estimate £40K)
- Complete internal redecoration – last carried out over 20 years ago. (estimate £70K)
