

Hilary Norris

(Leominster Priory)

will give an organ recital at

3.00pm June 5th

St Peter's Church
Stanton Lacy
SY8 2AE

as part of celebrations to mark the Platinum Jubilee of Queen Elizabeth 11. The organ, built by Gray and Davison in 1854, has recently been awarded a BIOS certificate for its quality and historic importance, and is a small but beautiful instrument which sounds lovely in the stunning church. The programme will include some of the Queen's favourites, including music by Purcell, Handel and Vaughan-Williams.

Retiring collection. Refreshments served.

Hilary Norris

(Leominster Priory)

will give an organ recital at

3.00pm June 5th

St Peter's Church
Stanton Lacy
SY8 2AE

as part of celebrations to mark the Platinum Jubilee of Queen Elizabeth 11. The organ, built by Gray and Davison in 1854, has recently been awarded a BIOS certificate for its quality and historic importance, and is a small but beautiful instrument which sounds lovely in the stunning church. The programme will include some of the Queen's favourites, including music by Purcell, Handel and Vaughan-Williams.

Retiring collection. Refreshments served.