Hay Fever

David Greenwood and Haslemere Thespians invite you to the weekend from Hell ! David is directing “Hay Fever” by Noel Coward, a cross between high farce and a comedy of manners (it has been called a “comedy of bad manners), with perhaps a dash of cruelty thrown in.

The play is set in an English country house in the 1920s, and deals with the four members of the Bliss family and the games they indulge in when they each invite a guest to spend the weekend. The play is a 20th century classic.

The cast is to die for, the set is going to look fantastic and the costumes will be fabulous. With great characters, brilliant dialogue, hilarious set-piece scenes and beautifully-observed human interaction, this is a thoroughbred of a play, a gift from a master of the theatre.

Come and enjoy. Perhaps put a party together. Always more fun in a group.

Tickets may be bought from David or via the Haslemere Hall Box Office - <https://www.haslemerehall.co.uk/theatre/hay-fever/>

John Rutter Concert at Cathedral 7.30pm - Saturday 9th December

A number of us thought that this concert would make a good evening out for our St Nics family. If you would like to come along, may we suggest that you book your tickets directly with the Cathedral using their online booking system and then let Linda (linda@sharpin.com) know that you have been successful. Nearer the time, and when we know how many of us there are, we can arrange transport for those who need it and maybe a small pre-concert nibble. Please note that this concert is proving very popular. All premium seats are now sold out. If anyone is uncomfortable booking online, let Linda or David know and they will make the purchase for you.
