The St Nicholas Sanctuary Flowers last Sunday were given to Jenny Taylor who was absolutely delighted to receive the church flowers, and sends her thanks. She is now recovering from her recent stay in hospital, although still very weak. She was devastated to learn that she cannot have the much needed hip operation, due to a growth on her kidney, but puts her trust in Our Lord Jesus, the great Healer. She misses you all and sends her love and prayers.

Church House Keys: From the beginning of October, we will once again, begin hiring out Church House Hall. There appears to be several sets of keys unaccounted for (each set has two keys for the front door – one yale and one chubb; plus a key to open the hall doors) If by any chance you have a set, could you please let Robert Lake or Barbara D'Arts know.

Dereham Town Pastors are beginning a new training programme on Saturday 16th October for old and new volunteers. We have spaces and would warmly welcome any more people who want to join us!! We are a group of Christian adults from several local churches who go out on the streets on Friday afternoon and evenings. We seek to be a friend to the lonely and a positive influence to youngsters and adults we meet. If you are interested please contact our Teams Co-ordinator Sandy Taylor at sandyjtaylor@icloud.com Traidcraft The Autumn range has now launched, and catalogues are available from the Stall to borrow. Do browse online and make your order early for Christmas to be sure of getting what you want (some popular Craft items may sell out early – this has happened in previous years).

Friday Coffee Mornings at St Nicholas We have started serving coffee again from 10.00am - 11.30am each Friday We will begin in church but move to Church House later in the year when it gets colder. Kate Baldry is compiling a rota of those willing to serve the coffee and she would welcome new volunteers as well as those who have done this before. Please give her a ring on 695503 if you can help.

Eco tip of the week: Use your LOAF! Buy and grow some food that follows Green Christians LOAF principles for food: Locally produced, Organically grown, Animal friendly and Fairly traded. Pick up a leaflet from the back of church – this explains about LOAF. One example of 'L for Local' is to buy British fruit and veg in season, (try a greengrocer or market stall) or look in your supermarket for local produce eg the Co-Op's 'Sourced Locally' range.

After many weeks of running practice night and day, Andrew Hood, is running a marathon of 27 miles on October 9th in aid of the charity NEW LIFE which helps and supports disabled children. If you would like to support him, please speak to Mel Brunning for more information.

St Nicholas Church Emails:

We have been very grateful to Marguerite Otty for keeping us in touch by email during lockdown with her comforting reports of Church news.

Since she is no longer Churchwarden and because our Church calendar is much fuller, the PCC have decided to set up a church email account. The name of this account is family.stnicholaschurch@gmail.com

You will receive emails about Church life and can use this email address to reply to emails or to ask about any other church-related queries you may have.

We need your consent before we can email you. If you received Marguerite's emails, if you are on the electoral roll, or if you have been approached directly, we already have your email address and consent to use it. Geoff Hearn, our Electoral Roll Officer, has kindly agreed to manage this list on behalf of the PCC.

If you are new to St Nicholas and wish to be kept in touch by email, please fill in a consent form and hand it to a Warden or member of the PCC. The consent forms are on the Welcomers' table at the back of Church.

The first email we are sending out will be arrive on Monday 18th October and will be from Paul. Please look out for it just in case it ends up in your junk email box! With such a large number of emails there are bound to be a few errors. If you do not receive Paul's email, please contact our Church email account and we will attempt to put things right.

Dinah Reed (Secretary to the PCC)

Today's Worship

Nineteenth Sunday After Trinity

Collect:

O God, forasmuch as without you we are not able to please you; mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.

First Reading: Amos 5.6-7, 10-15.

Psalm: 90.12-17

12 So teach us to number our days
that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

13 Turn again, O Lord; how long will you delay?
Have compassion on your servants.

14 Satisfy us with your loving-kindness in
the morning;
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Give us gladness for the days you have afflicted us
and for the years in which we have seen adversity.

16 Show your servants your works
and let your glory be over their children.

17 May the gracious favour of the Lord our God be upon us;
prosper our handiwork; O prosper the work
of our hands.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4.12-16,

Gospel Reading: Mark 10,17-31

For our prayers:

The Sick: Jenny Taylor, Sylvia Blacker,
John Harbord, Jean Fairweather, Keith Otty,
John Smith, Ann Cokayne, Justin Hammond.
Please continue to pray for: Gordon Taylor.

Those on the Anniversary of Their Death:

Richard Maxwell, Megan Whiteley, Judith Webdale.

Introductory sentence for the Peace:

We are the body of Christ.
In the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.
Let us then pursue all that makes for peace and builds up our common life.

Post Communion:

Holy and blessed God,
you have fed us with the body and blood
of your Son
and filled us with your Holy Spirit:
may we honour you,
not only with our lips
but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings for Next Week: Isaiah 53.4-12,
Psalm 91.9-16, Hebrews 5.1-10, Mark 10.35-45.
