The St Nicholas Sanctuary Flowers: Last Sunday were given to Jeanette Lawes daughters, Debbie and Kim.

The Eco Tip this week comes from Janet Barrow who is following on from the LOAF theme with another LOAF: Left Overs Are Food! She has written a little poem to inspire us!

“Waste not, want not”, it was said.
Thank you, God, for daily bread.
Always leave your plate quite clean.
“Love food, hate waste” is what we mean.

Lurking in the fridge we find (Out of sight and out of mind)
something we should throw away?
No, indeed! - Use it today.

Veggie soup or bubble and squeak.
Rissoles later in the week.
Ends of tarts and even cake
Can with sauce a pudding make.

Please tell me your helpful hints
with little bits of meat or mince;
How to use stale bread or cake
—anything tasty you can make.

(Can be sung to Duke Street: Fight the good fight)

Left Overs Are Flavoursome! I plan to compile a booklet in which we can share your favourite left over recipes and helpful tips that we can use at home. Please email me your ideas (janetbarrow@talktalk.net) or put them in the box at the back of St Nicholas before November 21st, so that I can produce the booklet in time for Christmas. Janet.

Traidcraft: Kate Baldry will be having an ‘Open House Traidcraft Christmas Sale’ at her home on Wednesday 17th November (10.00am-12noon and 2.00pm-6.00pm) and Thursday 18th November (10.00am-12noon and 1.00pm-3.00pm). Please give her a ring on 695503 if you do not know the address. All current Covid guidelines will be adhered to. There will be Fairtrade refreshments whilst you browse. There will be a range of Christmas Cards and Craft items as well as food and the usual general Greetings Cards.

Scarning Christmas Craft Fair: Saturday 4th December – 10.00am to 2.00 pm in Scarning Church and the Village Hall (to allow plenty of social distancing!). With cakes, craft stalls with locally made gifts, cards, preserves/pickles, vegetables etc, games for all the family, visits to the bell tower, an exhibition by Scarning Art Club, and the famous bacon butties and turkey rolls with all the trimmings. We look forward to seeing you.

Dianne Harbord has given this message:
“My dearly loved husband. John passed away on Wednesday 3rd November very peacefully with my arms around him. He will be sadly missed”.

The funeral for John will be held at Breckland Crematorium on Wed 17th Nov at 11.00 am followed by a service of thanksgiving at St Nicholas’ at 12.30pm the same day.

The St Nicholas book shop will close for the winter on 25th November and thanks to everyone who has purchased books and jigsaws. It will be back in 2022.

Today's Worship

Second Sunday Before Advent

Invitation to confession:

Let us confess to God the sins and shortcomings of the world;

its pride, its selfishness, its greed;
its evil distortions and hatreds.

Let us confess our share in what is wrong,
and our failure to seek and establish that peace
which God wills for all his children.

Collect:

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things
in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in
authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Daniel 12.1-3

Psalm: 16

1 Preserve me, O God, for in you have
I taken refuge;
I have said to the Lord, 'You are my lord,
all my good depends on you.'

2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land,
upon those who are noble in heart.

3 Though the idols are legion that many run after,
their drink offerings of blood I will not offer,
neither make mention of their names upon my lips.

4 The Lord himself is my portion and my cup;
in your hands alone is my fortune.

5 My share has fallen in a fair land;
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.

6 I will bless the Lord who has given me counsel,
and in the night watches he instructs my heart.

7 I have set the Lord always before me;
he is at my right hand; I shall not fall.

8 Wherefore my heart is glad and my spirit rejoices;
my flesh also shall rest secure.

9 For you will not abandon my soul to Death,
nor suffer your faithful one to see the Pit.

10 You will show me the path of life;
in your presence is the fullness of joy
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10.11-14(15-18)
19-25

Gospel Reading: Mark 13.1-8

For our prayers:

The Sick: Jenny Taylor, Sylvia Blacker,
Jean Fairweather, Keith Otty, John Smith,
Justin Hammond.
Please continue to pray for: Gordon Taylor.

The Recently Departed: John Harbord
Ann Cokayne

Those on the Anniversary of Their Death:
Alban Hunt

Introductory Sentence for the Peace:

To crown all things there must be love,
to bind all together and complete the whole.
Let the peace of Christ rule in our hearts.

Post Communion:

Gracious Lord,
in this holy sacrament
you give substance to our hope:
bring us at the last
to that fullness of life for which we long;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

The Blessing:

Go forth into the world in peace;
be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good;
render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak;
help the afflicted; honour everyone;
love and serve the Lord,
rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.
