

Kneelers

The creation of a series of kneelers was a millennium project. The four corner kneelers depict the four seasons. Some kneelers show the emblems for the guides and scouts, Mothers Union and New Start and the long kneeler at the bottom of the page is used for weddings. The other designs are taken from the tiles and stained glass windows in the church.

