

South aisle carvings and plaques

On the wall by the vestry door hangs a stone tablet of a black cross in memory of Revd Job. It is inscribed:

*'This tablet, together with North Window in the chancel is erected in memory of Charles Robert Job.
Vicar 1893-1914'*

The stone sculpture at the west end of the south aisle, above the south door is inscribed:
'ASK AND IT SHALL BE GIVEN YOU'

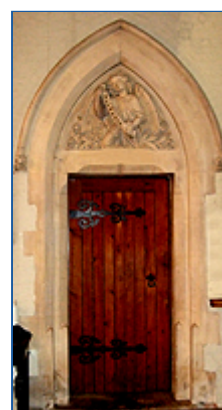

The stone sculpture at the east end of the south aisle, above the vestry door is inscribed:
'ALLELUIA'

Stone tablet in memory of Revd Job

'ALLELUIA'
at the east end of the south aisle
above the vestry door

Vestry door with its stone sculpture

'Suffer Little Children To Come Unto Me' at the west end of the south aisle,
above the inside south door

'Ask and it shall be given you'
at the west end of the south aisle
above the outside south door

Plaque in memory of Charles Hanrott 1895

Plaque in memory of Mr Cremer 1914

Plaque in memory of Fitzroy Fitz Wygram 1882