Lent Services.—This year again arrangements have been made for special services during the solemn season of Lent. In the midst of our preparations to make this a year of jubilee of thanksgiving and rejoicing, let us not forget that if we are in earnest, and true, we cannot leave out this season of lamentation and mourning. There is the tale of sin ever growing longer, the force of temptation strengthening rather than decreasing, the habit of sin rooted more deeply. May we stir ourselves, and use this season of Lent as a time of deeper repentance, more earnest searching after grace, and for forming stronger resolutions as to our future conduct. The following is a list of preachers who have kindly promised to come: Thursday, March 3rd, the Rev. L. H. Wellesley Wesley, Vicar of Hatchford; Thursday, March 10th, the Rev. W. A. Newton, Chaplain of Middlesex Industrial School, Feltham; Thursday, March 17th, the Rev. J. H. Armstrong, Vicar of Staines; Thursday, March 27th, Rev. E. Martin, Rector of Holy Trinity, Chester; Thursday, March 31st, Rev. H. B. McNair, Vicar of Earley. The Vicar will also (D.V.) preach a course of sermons on Sunday evenings, on the "Golden Chain of Virtues" (2 S. Peter, i, 5-8) as follows: February 27th, Faith; March 6th, Virtue; March 13th, Temperance; March 20th, Patience; March 27th, Godliness; April 3rd, Charity. During Lent there will be celebrations of the Holy Communion every Thursday at 7.30 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Tower and Spire.—We scarcely anticipated when we ventured to suggest the building of the Tower and Spire as a memorial of the Jubilee, that such progress could have made within the limits of a month. A well-attended and enthusiastic meeting of the parishioners of Hampton Hill, held in the Boys' School, Thursday, February 10th, unanimously resolved to adopt the work. A subscription list has been opened, and already the sum of £1004 10s. 0d. has been raised. It only remains for us all to work hard, and do our best, and we confidently hope that the first stone may be laid on the 20th of June, the 50th Anniversary of the Queen's Accession to the Throne.

Hampton Hill and Hampton Horticultural and Cottage Garden Society.—The General Meeting of the Subscribers was held in the Boys' School, on Tuesday, February 8th, the Vicar of Hampton Hill in the Chair. Mr. A. de Wette was elected president for the ensuing year. In consequence of the much regretted resignation of Mr. G. Evans, one of the secretaries, Mr. Martin and Mr. Jenkins were elected, in the hope that the latter would be willing to serve. The secretaries reported that the 1886 Show had been a success, and that there was a balance in hand of £6. It was arranged that the Show should be held in the grounds of Mr. J. P. Kitchin, who had generously placed them at the disposal of the Society, in the early part of July. The secretaries will be glad to receive promises of special prizes as soon as possible, so that the schedule may be issued without delay.

Our Lending Library.—Lady Superintendent, Mrs. FitzWygram. Managers, Miss Hayes, the Miss Barlows, Miss Butler, and Miss Jefferson. The following is a statement of accounts for the year 1886:—

Winter Entertainments.—On Wednesday, February 9th, there was a successful Parish Tea, and the entertainment after was rendered especially good by some charming music given on the violin and violoncello, by the Misses Mullens. Mr. Montpelier's recitation also was excellent. On the following Wednesday the room was crowded, and the audience were much delighted by the excellent acting of the two pieces, "Alone" and "Poor Pillicoddy," and the extremely pretty scenery which had been specially prepared for the occasion.

Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.—Amongst other excellent institutions of our day, there is none perhaps which seeks to remedy a more crying evil than this Society. So many instances of revolting cruelty to children are brought to light, that we must needs do all we can to render it less possible for the little helpless ones to suffer so sadly. Mrs. Powell, Strome House, has kindly undertaken to receive subscriptions, and has already remitted £1 5s. to the Treasurer of the Society.
