Easter Services.—Everything external contributed to make our Easter services bright and happy. Summer-like weather and bright sun, good congregations, hearty services, and extremely pretty decorations, all contributed their share to the good impressions which were the outcome of Easter Day. We trust that these were the true outward signs of inward devotion given and blessings received. Some little index of these may perhaps be accepted in the goodly number of those who were communicants on the greatest of all our Festivals. At 7 a.m. there were 57, at 8 a.m. 78, and at mid-day 79.

Easter Vestry.—The Annual Vestry was held on Thursday evening, April 6th. The Vicar once more had the pleasure of nominating Mr. W. C. B. Hall, as Vicar's Churchwarden, and Mr. A. E. Storey was again chosen by the Parish as his coadjutor. The following were elected as sidesmen:—Messrs. A. Bowling, H. P. Bowling Trevanion, G. H. Cremer, G. Dowsett, G. Evans, V. C. Griffiths, G. Stuchberry, W. Singleton, J. D. Mc Kenzie and Major Balguy.

Clock and Bells.—Subscriptions are coming in, and the amount received or promised has increased from £204 to £319 during the past month. A considerable effort is still required if before the end of May the whole of the £450 is to be raised. We commend the cause to all our friends in Hampton Hill. Appended is a list of subscribers up to date :—

Church Lads' Brigade.—We must congratulate the promoters of this movement upon the great success which has been obtained by the Hampton Hill Church Lads' Brigade. The inspection took place at the Boys' School, on Monday evening, April 10th, when 40 mustered and went through their drill and various exercises. Captain Hamilton (Grenadier Guards) came down specially to hold the inspection, and expressed himself well satisfied with the progress which has been made in the short time that the corps has been formed. We, who were spectators, could not fail to be pleased with the smart appearance of the lads in their uniform, and the efficient and soldier-like manner in which they went through their drill. We think that the greatest credit is due to their captain, the Rev. R. de Ritchie, who is himself a thorough soldier, for the pains and perseverance with which he has trained the corps, with the valuable assistance of Sergeant-Major Bremridge.

Confirmation.—At the Confirmation held by the Bishop of Marlborough, at Hampton Wick, on Monday, March 27th, at 7 p.m., nine candidates from Hampton Hill were confirmed :—William Hazel, George Kast, Charles Manning, Amy Cox, Rosetta Collins, Ellen Crystall, Alice Fallen, Lucy Fallen, Kathleen Pavitt.
