Infants' Treat.—The Vicarage Grounds will be thrown open on Saturday, June 3rd, at 5 p.m., and all parishioners will be welcome.

Notice.—The Vicar will preach his farewell sermons on Sunday, June 4th. The Rev. C. R. Job will read himself in on the morning of Sunday, June 25th, and preach his first sermon in the evening.

A few words from the Vicar.—My dear Parishioners and Friends, I do not like to miss the opportunity afforded to me by this the last issue, during my Vicariate, of the Parish Magazine, to say a few words to you. I would once again assure you of the heartfelt deep sorrow which it causes us that we have to go. Only the conviction, that in God's good Providence it is for the best, could have decided that we should go. An opportunity will be afforded me of saying a few parting words in Church, but there are some matters of interest to us, about which, perhaps, I might speak here. I allude to the material side of our parochial existence and the life connected with it. I think we may take somewhat a bright view of our present position. Looking back upon the 12 years which it has been my privilege to minister to you as Vicar of the Parish, there may be marked a steady growth in many directions, and an amount of present vitality which is altogether satisfactory. Our Parish Church built and greatly enlarged and beautified in my predecessor's time, has still further made progress, and with its Baptistery, its Tower and Spire, and the Clock and Bells which are shortly to be added, may be looked upon as fairly complete. Our Schools, though not increased in size, have been adapted so as to increase the amount of room which in great part has been filled by a large accession of numbers. Our Working Men's Institute and Club, which when I came here was just taking possession of the excellent room built for them by your former Vicar, though it has passed through a period of trial, at the present moment flourishes. Our Horticultural Society, notwithstanding a heavy but unavoidable loss, is as strong as ever, and still doing its good work in cottage and villa alike. Our Brass Band is now really first rate. Our Cricket Club, with its ground and pavilion in Bushey Park, flourishes greatly, and gives a good account of the proficiency of its members in the many matches which it plays. Our Entertainment Committee has up to the present been able to give fresh and fresh amusement and recreation through the long evenings of winter. Our Lawn Tennis Club is stronger than ever. Our Fire Brigade is very efficient; and our lately formed Church Lads' Brigade gives great promise of being a most useful Institution and help to our growing lads. To revert to those portions of the parochial work which are especially connected with the Vicar: the Choir has all these years made steady progress, and I think we may say that our Church Services are rendered most efficiently with reverence and devotion. Our Provident Club still continues a great help to thrift and comfort amongst a large proportion of the parishioners. We have an excellent band of District Visitors, through whose instrumentality a large amount of parochial work is carried out. We have a good staff of Sunday School Teachers, and the Sunday School and our Bible Classes are well attended. Our Temperance Association, our Library our Married Women's Club, and our Mothers' Meetings all flourish. We may thank God that He has blessed us so greatly, and pray Him to continue His care of you for the time to come. My special object in addressing these words to you is to call your attention to the future. It has been my privilege to work with you for a considerable time, but if under God's hand our work has succeeded and has borne considerable fruit, it is mainly due to the fact that you have worked so well with me, that we have been able to work hand to hand together. You see the results of your own work. What I want to say to you is, continue that good work! Do not allow the mere fact of my removal to slacken your efforts. It is with true gratitude that I can allude to the appointment of my successor, and promise you that in him you will find one ready to throw himself heart and soul into all that concerns your temporal as well as spiritual welfare. Let me ask you not only to welcome him when he comes amongst you, but to be prepared to work with him, and enable him to carry out a good work amongst you. God will bless and prosper your work. And now let me commit you to God's loving care. We shall be separated from you, but we shall not cease to think of you, and to pray for you that you may be kept safe through all the vicissitudes of this life, even unto the end.

Yours most affectionately,

HENRY BLIGH.

Clock and Bells.—The subscriptions and promises now amount to £361. The Tower and Spire Building Committee met on Wednesday, May 10th, and decided to proceed. The order for a Clock and set of Harrington's Tubular Bells has been given to Messrs J. Smith & Son, Derby. The following is the list of subscriptions up to date:—
