THE VICARAGE.

HAMPTON HILL,

July 1st, 1913.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

Our "JUBILEE FANCY FAIR" in every way exceeded our expectations; the weather was everything that we could wish; gifts of things to sell literally poured in for days before, and the stalls were all overcrowded. It was simply impossible to keep a correct list of all the contributors. I have a list of ninety-six who sent to the Vicarage, but this is but a small part of the whole. So we think it best not to print a list of names of ordinary contributors because some would inevitably be omitted. I hope everybody has been duly thanked for their contribution, and that they will overlook it if they have not.

To all the Stall-holders, and all who managed the various events, I feel personally deeply grateful. They worked hard, and early and late, and all did well. It is impossible to say too much about the enthusiastic and kindly spirit that prevailed throughout the "Fair." There are certain persons that I must mention for the splendid service they rendered in giving their time in a most ungrudging spirit, i.e., Messrs. Singleton & Sons, Mr. Gray (Gray & Hill) Mr. A. B. Gray, Mr. W. A. Wilson, and Mr. F. Singleton. We also received much valued help from Mr. Lange (Florist), Miss Uzzell, Messrs. Makepeace, Prewett, Deacon Howe, Poupart Musgrave, Howe, Hunt, Wilson, Lemon, Barker and Co., Valda Bread Co., Larwood & Matthews, Deayton & Co., H. T. Mason, Chipperfield, Tom Page, Sherwood, Silvester, Pearce, Jenkins, Clements, W. H. Owen, Idris & Co. Indeed, I do not think there could possibly have been a greater willingness to help, and I should like to say "Thank you," to everybody who assisted at all, and to some I wish to say it many times over.

To Mr. Lowdell, our indefatigable Secretary, much of the success is due. He gave unlimited time to the work, and he was always calm and always cheerful and patient, no matter what was expected of him. A rough statement of the takings will be found below. Mr. Lowdell wishes it to be understood that it is subject to correction, and next month we hope to submit an audited balance sheet. The trellis work used for the stalls is for sale at 3d. a length of 8 or 10ft., and may be had from the gardener at the Vicarage.

The Sunday School Excursion is to take place on Wednesday, the 2nd inst., and is to be to Burnham Beeches. The brakes will start from the Schools at 8.30 a.m.

The Annual Meeting of the MOTHERS' UNION is fixed for Friday, the 18th inst. There will be Service at 3.30 p.m., after which we shall adjourn to the Vicarage Garden for the Meeting and Tea. We hope all members will try to come.

ST. JAMES' DAY, FRIDAY, the 25th. Full particulars will be duly announced. There will be Holy Communion at 8 and 11 a.m. At the latter there will be an Address. The Children will start from the School with the Fortescue House Band at 2 p.m. After a short Service in the Church, they will march to the field for tea and sports. There will be a display of drilling, etc., on the lawn, and we hope to have an Address by the Bishop of Kensington. There will be a Choral Service at 8.15 p.m., when we hope all who can will be present. Do not forget that this is to be the Jubilee Service of our Church. The Bishop of Kensington will preach, and I hope he will also dedicate the memorial windows to Mrs. FitzWygram and the Rev. the Hon. H. Bligh. The offertories throughout the day will be for the Treats' Fund.

I am glad to hear from Mr. Stutchbury that he has already received more than enough for the MEMORIAL WINDOW to Mrs. FitzWygram, and whatever is over will be put in the bank and will go towards the completion of the Baptistery windows at a future date. The names of all the contributors will be printed in next month's magazine, but not the amount contributed by each. Those wishing to have a share in this memorial, and have not yet contributed, are asked to send as soon as convenient.

The Annual Festival of the G.F.S. for the parishes of Hampton, Sunbury, Hanworth and Hampton Hill, will be held here on Wednesday, the 30th inst. The Members will assemble in the Vicarage Field for the distribution of awards, for games and for tea. The service will be at 6 p.m.

After a long and painful illness Mrs. James Singleton passed quietly away on the 9th ulto. Few people were better known in the village, and few have been more highly respected. So long as she was able she was always present in her place in Church. She loved to help others, and never seemed to be so happy as when trying to do good. Her consistent, quiet, unobtrusive life and character will not be forgotten amongst us.

I am, my dear Friends,

Very sincerely yours,

CHARLES R. JOB.
