

HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE VICARAGE.
HAMPTON HILL,
March 1st, 1914.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

My first word shall be one of thanks to you all for the very cordial and hearty manner in which you are receiving us, and I hope, during March, to make the acquaintance of a large number of the Parishioners.

You will find in this magazine the announcements concerning Lent. May I commend the various services to your very earnest prayers, that God's blessing may rest on those who teach and on those who learn?

The Confirmation Classes have now been finally arranged. I am taking the girl-candidates at 2.30 on Tuesdays in the Vestry, and on Thursdays at 8.15 in the Church Room; and Mr. Goldie has a class for lads on Fridays, at 8.30, also in the Church Room.

I hope as many as possible of the Sunday School Teachers will meet me in the Church Room on Tuesday, March 3rd, at 8.30. There will be many things to talk over, and I am anxious that the majority of teachers shall be present.

Mr. Goldie hopes to be ordained to the Priesthood at the forthcoming Lenten Ordination by the Bishop of London. I confidently appeal for your prayers on his behalf on this momentous occasion in his life.

Mrs. Coad Pryor will welcome the members of the Missionary Working Party at the Vicarage, on Fridays, March 6th and 20th.

I was instituted as your Vicar on Monday, February 23rd, by the Bishop of London, and the Archdeacon of Middlesex will "induct" me to the living on some day towards the end of March, the date of which will be duly announced.

May I ask for your liberal support of the Church Lads' Brigade? I am sure we were all pleased at their smart turn out for Church Parade, on Sunday, February 22nd.

Yours truly,
R. COAD PRYOR.
