HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE VICARAGE.

HAMPTON HILL,

December 30th, 1916.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

For the third time we are commencing a New Year under the war cloud. During the year many of you have been called upon to make the great sacrifice, and, it may be, that in 1917 others of you will pass through much anxiety and sorrow: yet we know that in all God has some great purpose in view, and some day we too shall be able to understand what now we see "through a glass darkly." I pray that all of you may have a Happy New Year, made all the happier because we shall learn more and more of God's love and guidance for ourselves and our country.

I am glad to announce that Mr. Sloan, the Bishop's Messenger, will pay us a visit on Sunday, January 14th and will preach at the 11 a.m. service. You will remember him in your prayers.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. A. F. King-Stephens in the loss he has sustained through the death from wounds of his brother Mr. L. E. King-Stephens, who was well known and very greatly respected by a large circle of friends.

On January 23rd I hope to give another lecture in the Church Room at 8 p.m. on "Some difficulties of the Bible: on this occasion the subject will be "The New Testament Miracles." Although these gatherings are in connection with the C.E.M.S. the general public are invited to attend.

A very generous support was given to the Carol Singers this year, with the result that £19 11s. 1d. was handed to me for the aged and poor of the parish. We are greatly indebted to the Misses Ovington-Jones (5) and their helpers—Mrs. Gibbons, Miss Cameron, Miss Goldie, and Miss M. Farraker.

The Church was decorated for the Christmas with the accustomed good taste and care. Our thanks are due to those who decorated, and also to the many friends who kindly sent flowers, evergreens, etc.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.
