HAMPTON HILL,

July, 1917.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

Our sympathies go out to Mr. and Mrs. W. Newton on the death in action of their son Claude, and also to Mr. and Mrs. Carter of Clump Cottages, on the confirmation of the loss of their son, who has been on the "missing" list for a long time.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Mason, of Eton Lodge, on the honour conferred on their son Lieut. Mason, who has been awarded the Military Cross.

I am glad to hear from Mr. C. H. Evans that the response to the appeal on behalf of the churchyard has been very generous: a first list of subscribers will be published next month.

The very good work done by Sergt. Mardon in connection with the Church Lads' Brigade was recognized by the gift to him of a wrist watch, as a token of appreciation of his efforts on behalf of the Company. I may mention that Major Cooke at his recent inspection expressed himself as very highly pleased with the work done during the past winter.

By kind invitation of Mrs. Joseph a missionary garden meeting was held at Roodene on July 12th, when the Rev. J. Britton gave a graphic account of the influence of Christianity among the natives in British East Africa.

The C.E.T.S. meeting fixed for July 8th in the Vicarage field had to be held, owing to the weather, in the Schools. There was a crowded attendance, and the Diocesan secretary, Rev. H. Pearson, gave a very inspiring and helpful address: some new members were enrolled by the secretary, Mr. W. Jordan.

The good work done in our Day Schools is evidenced by the fact that two scholarships have recently been won, in the boys' school by Clifford Jarvis, and the girls' school by Vera Looker.

The Sunday School Treat takes place on August 14th, when it is hoped to take about 200 to Windsor by steamer. I think we may reckon upon your usual kindness in supplying the necessary funds.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.

CHURCHYARD.—It would make the up-keep of the churchyard much easier if those who place large wreaths on graves would kindly take them away out of the churchyard when the flowers are faded. The wire baskets are provided for small wreaths and loose flowers.

GIRLS' SCHOOL.—The children have contributed £19 3s. 10d. for various war purposes. This includes £6 collected by them outside the school for the Star and Garter hospital. They have also done a great deal of knitting and sewing for our sailors and soldiers.
